We have been busy for the last 10 days arranging our stock of 5 and 10 cent goods. Our friends in Chicago, Cincinnati, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York will keep us posted as to all market fluctuations. Thus, you see, when it comes to buying goods we will be able to fire with perfect precision. It is needless for us to s a that the markets of Mother Earth will be raked and scraped for bargains-stripped of chaff. We propose to place on sale, right here in the heart of Chester's busiest district, between 10 and 20 thousand useful articles, all to go at 5 and 10 cents each. It is our aim and ambition to be regarded as the Greatest Bargain Givers in the civilized world. Our big values and minimum profits preclude the idea of credit, so bring
