Project Long Anticipated

By the time the "Y" term is over, all students in the college community, and all that is wild, fearless, rough, ignorant, or dry-witted, low-country way, "is going down." This is the mood of the nation, and of the home he community, and of the world outside. All very flat-footed, all very empty."

"The Jd..."

The following juniors and seniors have been elected to the Alpha Psi Omega fraternity, upon the resignation of Mrs. Alumnae Dorothy Bethea, Eliza Hynds. There is a fund for this purpose, and everyone on the Winthrop campus, whether he be ignorant, brilliant, or of the home he community, and of the world outside, will contribute to this fund for the past three years. Other contributions will be solicited. The fund will be used to support the World Student Service Fund, an educational organization which distributes to this fund for the past three years. Winthrop Votes November 7

What We Live By

The Johannean wants to deserve a reputation for accuracy, thoroughness, and fairness. We have no prerogatives. We will do our best to make sure our opinions are well-considered, as is our right. We are always glad to print the pro and con of any situation.

This week, we would like to bring to your attention the question of voting in the Student Government elections. The vote is "yes" to the statement: "I want to see a "better" in answer to the question of the administration's decentralization."

At issue is Mary Edna Porter's institute, "The Johannean as a College newspaper," which represents a consensus of the town students.

Dear Campus Town Hall:

We are writing as a first-time voter to express our support for the "no" position. We feel that the Student Government has the right to be involved in the campus community. We believe that the Johannean should be free of any influence by Student Government. We feel that the "yes" position would be a step towards the Student Government's gaining control of the Johannean. We feel that the "no" position would be the better choice.

Winthrop's faculty were not canvassing these students. We shall not attempt to canvass the town students. We hope that the "no" position will be victorious in the Student Government elections.

In conclusion, we feel that the "no" position is the better choice.

Sincerely,

Faculty Members Present Unique Performance Friday

By ZEAR LATON

Only a few minutes before the performance was starting, the director of the performing group was introduced to the audience. The performance Friday, October 14, in the auditorium of the Community Center, was the first public performance of the year. The program was presented by the students of the Drama Department, under the direction of Mr. George L. Riddle. The performance was titled "Three Little Pigs." The audience was made up of students and faculty members of the school. The performance was well received by the audience.

Nets $100
War Bond

The third Sigma Gamma Mu War Bond netted $100 in proceeds; to add another War Bond to the fund growing as a result of the F16 required War Bond presentation, Fraunces Steam, in aid, extended a successful visit this week on the 1945 Circus which was presented Saturday, October 14, on the athletic field.

Playing to a crowd of students, faculty members and War Bond contributors, the ring show was introduced by Hulgranger Virginia Baker. Music by the circus band accompanied a parting band played by Estherline, the Arkansas Elephant, and Nancy, the Russian elephant. One of the highlights of the ring show was the appearance of the Faculty Floras. Miss M. H. Post, head of the physical education department, started Tuesday to attend the committee of the college for health and physical education, which meets in Oak-landia to draw up plans for the coming year.

Members of the committee who were to meet next week include Miss Frances Cotton, former Winthrop physical education instructor and head of a number of the Limestone college faculty, Miss Margaret Chambers, Spartus, Miss Frances Major, Anderson; Miss El- enore Moody, Coker, and Mrs. James Whorton, Columbia.
