To the Graduates

We want to extend our heartfelt congratulations on your fine accomplishment of having earned a Winthrop diploma. In our humble judgment it is not the best to be had in the realm of practical mental and physical training, and as the years go by the realization of its full value will unfold.

To those of you who have honored us with visits to our store during your stay, and to those who have not, we are unhesitatingly say we’re sorry to see you go, and we hope you will have occasion to frequent visits to our city, at which time don’t fail to come in to see us. A welcome awaits you.

And, remember, it doesn’t matter where you go, or what your vocation, our best wishes for your happiness and success will be with you.
