CHESTER WON.

Next Meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy Will Be Here.

Greenville, Dec. 8.—The eleventh annual convention of the South Carolina division of the Daughters of the Confederacy adjourned in the city late this afternoon, and tomorrow morning the visitors will begin leaving for their homes.

Chester was selected as the next meeting place, but not without a spirited contest. Both Columbia and Spartanburg wanted the honor. Mrs. B. Reid Nunn urged Columbia's claims and presented letters from the major of that city with resolutions adopted by various commercial bodies inviting the delegates to Columbia. Mrs. Bartlett urged the claims of Spartanburg. There were letters from prominent people in Chester asking the Daughters to make that city their next meeting place, and Chester won.

The annual election of officers was carried through in less than 40 minutes, resulting in the reelection of the entire list of State officers. Miss Mary Lippenheim, than whom there is no better presiding officer, will again preside over the deliberations of the division.

Two new State officers were created, and Mrs. C. E. Graham of the Greenville chapter was chosen as registrar, while Mrs. Kelt of Clemson was elected recorder of crosses of honor.

The convention voted to establish a three-year scholarship in some woman's college in South Carolina. The scholarship is to be awarded some girl who is in need of such assistance and is the daughter of Confederate parents. The college will be selected later.

Fifty dollars was appropriated by the division toward the Arlington Confederate monument fund.

The following is the list of officers: Miss Mary H. Lippenheim, president, Charleston; Mrs. S. Reid Storey, first vice president, Columbia; Mrs. W. L. Coleman, second vice president, Johnston; Mrs. Julia K. Campbell, third vice president, Chester; Mrs. W. E. Fowler, fourth vice president, Yorkville; Mrs. Augusta Kohn, recording secretary, Columbia; Mrs. H. P. Lynch, corresponding secretary, Orangeburg; Mrs. Mary McMichael, treasurer, Orangeburg; Mrs. F. H. Hayes, auditor, Jonestown; Mrs. R. D. Wright, registrar, Chester; Mrs. E. B. Storey, recorder of crosses of honor, Special to The States.

Outwits The Surgeon.

A complication of female "fibroids," with catarrh of the stomach and bowels had reduced Mrs. Thos. S. Austin, of Newmarket, Ind., to such a deplorable condition, that her doctor advised her to be put to death, but her husband, fearing fatal results, postponed this to Dr. E. C. Bland, and to the amazement of all who knew her, this medicine completely cured her. Guaranteed cure for liver, kidney disease, biliousness, indigestion, colic and all general ailments. Nervousness and blood poisoning. Best tonic made. Price 60c at the Chester Drug Co. and Standard Pharmacy, 77

Caravassing for the Speakership.

We frequently notice in the newspapers where one of the candidates for speaker of the house of representatives is a visitor at different county seats, evidently in the interest of his election. The office is without doubt and entirely one of honor; just why a personal canvass should be made is not quite clear. To say that it is, is very unusual, and the candidate depends upon his securing the coveted prize. The dispensary forces are very anxious to wield the gavel in the coming session, and the candidate supposed to be canvassing is a dispensary man hailing from a county where no liquor has legally been sold. If the anti-dispensary forces are in the majority, there should be split in their ranks and the gavel should only be entrusted to one representing the sentiment of the majority. The argument used by the dispensary side, that the office should not come into the consideration in selecting a presiding officer, is very logical, and it is not to be wondered at that legislators who have had previous experience with politicians, "Meaning Times come with politicians."

A Western Wonder.

There's a hill at Bowie, Tex., that's twice as big as last year. This wonder is the hill, who has grown a weight of 50 pounds in a year. The hill is a grassy slope, and the doctors gave me up as a case of Consumption. I was advised to use Dr. King's New Dispensary for Consumption, Cough and Colds. Now, after taking 12 bottles, I have more than doubled in weight and am completely cured. Only one bottle guaranteed by the Chester Drug Co. and Standard Pharmacy. Price 60c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.—U

Winnabore Letter.

Winnabore, S. C., Dec. 8.—We are certainly having beautiful weather these days and wish Mr. Martin Grant would tell us if we may expect this kind of weather all winter.

Thanksgiving day passed off quietly at this place. There was preaching at the A. B. P. church, but the church was not crowded.

Rev. Mr. Holliday, the new pastor of the Presbyterian church, has arrived and preached last Sabbath. I am sure he will find a welcome in Winnabore.

We hope Rev. Stokes has been sent back to us. He is popular with everybody.

Mrs. J. T. Ligon, of Anderson, has returned home, after spending several days with her father, Mr. Jas. A. Brice.

Mrs. Nancy Madden, who has been visiting her son, Mr. S. B. Crawford, at Great Falls, came home last Sabbath.

Mr. James Cathcart, who has a position at Great Falls, spent Sabbath and Monday in town with his family.

Mr. Mack Stevenson spent last Sabbath at his home near Blackstock.

Mr. John Batteree, of the Alliance neighborhood, one mile from town, Monday night. He lost several bales of cotton and seed of 85 bales. He had no insurance. This is the second fire in the past two months on his place with heavy loss of time.

Rev. C. E. McDonald will be absent next Sabbath assisting Rev. Lummus with a communion meeting at Union, hence there will be no preaching at the A. B. P. church.

Last Monday was salesday. The rock quarry near Rockton was sold that day, also horses, mules and cows.

Farmers are about through picking cotton, which was quite a light crop around here. They are sowing grain now.

Long Tennessee Fight.

For twenty years W. L. Davis, of Belle, Tenn., fought nasal catarrh. He writes: "The remedy and sentence inside my nose was fearful, till I began applying Buckner's Arnie Salve to the sore surface; this caused the soreness and swelling to disappear, never to return. Buy this in existence to be at the Chester Drug Co's and Standard Pharmacy."

The President and Negro Troops.

Washington, Dec. 8.—The senate today adopted the Penrose resolution requesting the president to send information regarding the discharge of the negro troops on the Twenty-fifth infantry, and also the Fraker resolution naming the secretary of war to transmit all information in the possession of his department on the subject. Both resolutions carried an identical amendment by Mr. Gatherson, asking specifically for the order to Maj. Penrose, commanding the troops which directed his officers to serve over to the Texas authorities certain of the troops demanded.

This action followed a debate of two hours, and was taken without a roll call or opposing vote. The debate developed along two distinct lines, one as to the propriety of asking the president for the information, and of directing the secretary of war to furnish it and the other an indulgence by a few senators in comment on the merits of the case.

During the debate the report was current among senators that the president felt it would be a matter of courtesy if the resolution should be addressed to himself, and so strong, it was said, was this feeling on his part that he had intimated that no less this course was taken there would be no response.

"Everybody Wants But Father."

A Washington society who has been examining into the condition of the children of the poor writes for the south tells a story of how they are neglected in the mills. In Statesboro, N. C., he got to talking with a hale and hearty looking citizen who said the negroes here, including white children, "What do you do for a living?" asked the sociologist. "Well, stranger," he immediately replied the hospitable citizen, "I'm a miller. I'm a miller for a living these days, ain't? So how I have five head of gals a-workin' in the cotton factory."—New York Tribune.

Passed Examination Successfully.

Fame Donahoe, New Britain, Conn., writes: "I tried several other remedies, and was troubled by kidney disease, but I did not improve until I took Foley's Kidney Pills. These pills improved my condition, and I was enabled to pass a right examination for my life insurance." Foley's Kidney Pills cure kidney troubles. Letter to the publisher.

NEW WINTER LETTUCE.

A Large Tray of Plant Able to Withstand Winter.

The Bureau of plant industry recently has prepared a variety of excellent lettuce seeds from a large plot which it had under cultivation in close proximity to its chief office in the grounds of the department of agriculture.

THE NEW WINTER LETTUCE. (This weeks old and three feet high.)

It is interesting to note that this forcing was weakening these stock until now the work lettuce often becomes so diseased in the houses that it is by no means rare for a grower to lose an entire crop of greenhouse lettuce by a disease to which these overwintered plants are particularly liable.

Mr. B. T. Calloway, chief of the bureau of plant industry, in order to counteract the more serious diseases of the season on this subject and has at last succeeded in obtaining a crop of winter lettuce from time to time, which is free from the most serious diseases.

COW HORN TURNIP.

Has Been Used With Benefit For Changing Soil Texture.

Much success has been attained with the cow horn turnip as a soil improver, or rather, ameliorator, as it is supposed to have a more or less effect on the texture than by bringing in new fertilizing material, like clover and other legumes. It will grow in unproductive soil and bears well into the ground, opening up by its decay in winter the deeper compact layers and adding a most appreciable amount of humus.

The seeds are commonly sown with trifolium clover in August or September in corn or clover that might otherwise remain bare through winter. It has been used in this manner with perceptible benefit on heavy soils in thousands of other trials throughout the country.

It is bringing a newly purchased addition into cultivation we concluded to use this hardy plant. The plot was deeply plowed in June, after the evergreen nursery had been sown and twice harrowed at intervals of a fortnight or half sprouting weeds and fruiting in September.

Mr. B. T. Calloway, chief of the bureau of plant industry, in order to counteract the more serious diseases of the season on this subject and has at last succeeded in obtaining a crop of winter lettuce from time to time, which is free from the most serious diseases.

It often happens that a farm is more or less cut up by ravines or depressions which interrupt the separate fields and the supply ditches have been extended across these low places.

CAROLINIANS SEE PRESIDENT.

Delegates to National Rivers and Harbors Congress Think They Have Done Good.

Washington, Dec. 7.—South Carolina's delegation to the National Rivers and Harbors congress left this afternoon for home, feeling, they said, that apart from the regular attendance upon the proceedings at the convention, they had accomplished much good towards getting appropriations for their various projects in South Carolina.

Mr. Morgan was the only member of the committee to whom the territory embracing South Carolina was made nearly plain. Messrs. Clark and Dozier of Columbia and Morgan of Georgetown, together with Representatives Levee and Kierke, held a conference this morning at the Metropolitan hotel with Mr. Sparkman, who seemed to find fault with the showing made by the delegation for the South Carolina projects, especially the completion of the work on the Congaree, at Georgetown and near Georgetown.

Mr. Dozier at this time was in Columbia that he went to work and secured for them an audience with Chairman Burton, who is about the most powerful legislator in Washington just at present.

What is Fruit?

Among the perplexing questions brought before the interstate commerce commission by the new rate law is whether melons, potatoes, pumpkins and other agricultural products are fruits.

It is an interesting simplification of the way in which one subject brings up another by its connection in considering the enactment that this matter is an outcome of congressional effort to curb the free-pass evil.
