THE LANTERN.

PUBLISHED TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS.

J. T. BIGHAM, Editor and Proprietor.

Entered at the Postoffice at Chester, S. C., as second-class matter.

FRIDAY, DEC. 16, 1904.

Russian officials at St. Petersburg are still whistling to keep their courage up. They say the Japanese have reached their high tide and "have mislaid the psychological moment," while Russian troops are piling up behind Mukden and are already too strong for the Japanese.

Mr. D. A. Tompkins, of Charlotte, thinks that the monopoly on production of the bulk of the world's supply of cotton is threatened in the south in three ways:

- 1. The most important of these menaces is the boll weevil.
2. The movement of cotton-consuming countries to foster and develop production of cotton in parts of the world where the savage may be turned into a cheap laborer.
3. The constant draft being made upon the labor of the cotton fields by the ever increasing manufactures of the south.

Notwithstanding the recent bitter experience of some of our citizens we understand that facilities for gambling in features are still offered in Chester. Moreover, we have been informed that the agency formerly operated here and variously known as the "booster shop" and "buggy shop," where so many put their money in a hole, is to be opened again. Indeed it is said that a third is to be started. It is needless to suggest that these concerns, except the latter, which means that they are presuming upon the abnormal development of the fool pump in the heads of many people, and we should not be surprised to learn later that the presumption is justified.

The Spartanburg Journal has pronounced one question in the course of its editorial discussion of the relations of the Richmond Distilling Company with the dispensary system, the banks and the newspapers of Columbia, that we would like to see answered. It was, How does the Richmond Distilling Co. manage to make corn whiskey, rye whiskey, gin, brandy and various other liquors from corn and nothing else, and how does it succeed in making a profit, when guaranteed to be seven or eight years old when the distillery has been in operation only about half that period? All of this may be trade secret and susceptible of a satisfactory explanation, but nevertheless excites the curiosity of a man on the outside.

We have all heard of poetic license, which permits the poet to violate rules of language which stand in the way of measure, rhyme or euphony. Then there is the license which many lecturers take to be whenever they serve their purpose better than the truth in making an interesting story. So we have distiller's license - we think we have heard of something of that kind.

Premiums to Club Makers. We will announce our premiums in our next issue. They will be worth money and a good deal of it. Get ready to start.

Will Hardin Hang. Will Hardin, the negro convicted of murder at the late term of court, has just been hanged in the jail, by Sheriff Corwell. He was pronounced dead in five minutes. He made a statement, but asked to be allowed to pray, which was, of course, granted.

Attention Baptists! The pastor of the Baptist church will preach a special sermon next Sunday to his congregation. It is earnestly hoped that every member of the church will be present at the morning service. If you love your church and are still loyal to your "Baptismal Vow" fail not to be present. A CORDIAL WELCOME WILL ALSO BE GIVEN TO VISITORS AND STRANGERS.

Geo. Harris Moves On. The Marion negroes who were detained here a week ago on account of the seizure of two of their mules and wagons, an account of which was given in last Friday's Lantern, heard from their Arkansas friends sooner than they expected, with the necessary money by wire. They bought back their wagons and mules from Mr. Frazer, loaded up and resumed their journey to Arkansas just after we went to press. It is said that this family continued their membership and attendance at the white people's church as long as they remained at their old home.

W. M. Simpson Dead. Mr. W. M. Simpson, who was taken to the state hospital in Columbia a short time ago, died there yesterday afternoon. The remains were brought here this morning and taken to Riteburg for burial. Mr. Simpson became overheated and unconscious several months ago and he recovered only partially. He leaves a wife and six children. The oldest is Mr. W. C. Simpson, of Charlotte, who came home for the funeral. We learn that Mr. Simpson had insurance of $1,000 or more in the Fraternal Union of America.

Col. T. B. Butler, of Gaffney, Thos. F. McDow, Esq., of Yorkville, and Messrs. W. J. Cherry and Walter M. Shilley, of Rock Hill, were in the city Wednesday evening in motion before Judge Gage at Chambers.

Miss Willie Neal came home from a Reading Wednesday evening.

Fraternal Union. Chester Lodge No. 177 of the Fraternal Union of America held one of the most interesting meetings ever held by this lodge at the Odd Fellows hall Wednesday night, December 14th. The occasion was the official visit of one of its supreme officers, Mr. Newman Lacer, of Atlanta, Ga. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, a large number of members with their friends had gathered to listen to the lecture, which proved to be quite interesting. Mr. Lacer spoke for more than an hour on the plans and features of the order, its benefits, etc.

After the conclusion of his address the lecture described to have the annual election of officers on next Wednesday night, December 21st, at 7:30. The secretary was instructed to send out notices to the members to invite their friends to be on hand and participate in a banquet to be spread after the election. A committee on banquet was appointed consisting of the following: F. W. Knox, chairman, I. McElroy, W. J. McCallister, H. E. McCallister, B. T. Peay and H. B. Howie. The meeting was a very enthusiastic one and Chester Lodge bids fair to become one of the leading lodges in South Carolina.

Upon motion of Frater Newbold a rising vote of thanks was extended to Supreme Secretary Newman Lacer for his kind words of encouragement, his able address and the faithful service he rendered this lodge. He was also elected a life time honorary member of Chester Lodge No. 177. Mr. Lacer thanked the officers and members for the kindness they have shown him and for the cordial reception they rendered him. His address was detailed by other members and the members and friends enjoyed a social smoke lasting until midnight.

Mr. W. J. Simpson has sold his handsome residence on York street to Dr. J. G. Johnston, and will travel for a mercantile firm.

Cap. M. H. Hunter and Mr. Will Leary, Memphis, have accepted positions with J. T. Collins & Co. for the balance of their closing out sale.

Misses Carrie Inabnet and Emma Hay, of Springfield and Jessie Phillips, of Timonium, Md., were detained overnight with Miss Willie Neal on their way home from All Heating.

The Baltimore conference of the A. M. E. Zion church is seated at 11:30. S. C., dropped from the roll. Rev. S. T. Meek, a presiding elder, because he would not pay his debts and failed to turn Conference funds over to the church officers.

Bishop Chandler is not an advocate of even an admitter of the modern flour as it exists in most town floureries with the usual voluntary, and obligatory, and for the sacred concert he has no sympathy. He says such choirs and concerts will "fill up" time for preachers who have not much to say, but that he wants none of them. Carolina Spang.

The impeachment of U. S. District Judge Swayne, of Florida, before the national house of representatives, is the first impeachment of a judge in 70 years, and the first proceedings of the kind since the famous case of Secretary of War Belknap during the administration of President Grant.

Mr. Rosborough's family are very grateful for the help that came from the Springfield mills, without which great damage could not have been avoided. The fire was discovered by Mr. Yandis, and he, with Mr. Arthur and others, ran up and started the fight, and they are given credit for saving the house.

Miss Beatie Biglam, of Hebron, N. C., who has been helping to nurse her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Biglam, in the Wellridge neighborhood, the past few weeks, came to the city Tuesday afternoon to visit friends and relatives and left Wednesday evening for Catawba Junction to spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. J. A. M. E. Zion Conference.

The thirty-ninth annual conference of the A. M. E. Zion church is now in session at Mt. Zion church, this city. Rev. A. McLees pastor.

Rev. T. H. Lomax, D. D., is the presiding bishop. He is said to be a popular preacher as the late Bishop I. C. Clinton was in Lancaster. The Charlotte Observer reports that he is a man of ample fortune, worth perhaps $25,000, all of which he has made out of his labor and honest investments, and not out of the church.

FOR SALE.—One rubber tire carriage, one good one-horse wagon, one iron fire phonet, and one horse. W. D. Bewley. 12-9-31

Two Fires Wednesday.

The roof of Mr. W. H. Rosborough's house, on Saluda street, caught fire Wednesday morning about 10 o'clock but was discovered in time and put out by some gentlemen with buckets of water before the fire company arrived.

The next was the kitchen at Mr. I. J. McNeil's on Wylie street. The fire was first noticed by Mrs. J. M. Brice about 11 o'clock that night. The flame was then bursting through the roof. The alarm was given and by the quick response of the fire company the dwelling was saved, though the kitchen with all its contents was a complete loss. The loss of the contents of the kitchen is estimated at $75, with no insurance, but we did not learn what insurance, if any, was on the building, which belonged to Mr. M. A. Carpenter. The fire is supposed to have started from the stove fire as there had been fire in the stove late in the afternoon.

STRAYED.—Tuesday afternoon, yellow Jersey cow, with one horn. Inform Mr. J. S. Mangum. 11

Dr. J. S. Moffatt returned from Atlanta last night.
