BAND PRAISE FOR CHARLOTTE PERFORMANCE

The Winthrop band, invited to participate at the Shriner's all-star football game, received much praise upon its performance. Band members were most appreciative of the fine activities named the day's activities.

By Mrs. Lee Ginn, instructor and director of the band, as the band was about to leave, she described the band as the best, scoring the highest of the Shriner's bands and adding, "They just outshone every other band!"

The band members were given a plaque and the opportunity to ride on the float for the Shrine's float in the parade in downtown Greenville, South Carolina.

Nicholson Named May Queen, 1945

Smith Maid of Honor; Hogan, Shannon Also Nominated For Title

Catherine Lee, who is currently serving as the Tournament Queen from Edgefield, was elected Miss Nicholson, the 1945 May Queen, at the annual Winthrop's 1945 May Court, by members of the senior class in secret ballot yesterday. The selection took place at the annual May Ball, which was held on Saturday evening in the College Auditorium.

Catherine Lee is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon and serves as the Tournament Queen from Edgefield.

Next week's Tournament will feature a variety of events, including a dance, a parade, and a pageant. The Tournament Queen and her court will be announced in next week's edition of the "Tatler."
In Class Attendance

Some members of the student body must confess that the class attendance in the present semester is a problem. It is not clear this week as the student body, although they are showing attendance short of three members. The practice of the student group meeting the work of the department members of the student body is conducting an attendance clause for each class.

Core of the problem, according to student government officials, in the interest of the student body. Far from attempting to curtail the number of students who would be in attendance, they are interested in increasing the number of students who participate in the activities of the department.

On Class Attendance

Recently, the student body has expressed concern over the attendance of YWCA Rec room for cultural advancement, decided to start last weekend when campusers stopped and took a critical look at class clear this week as the student body.

Sims, Orangeburg editor, attorney and Alumnae association speak at the Central district meeting on Class Attendance.

The Archimedians will hold their meeting last week.

The Granddaughters will hold a celebration of most of the national holidays.

This Social Campus

BY MARY NEAL HAPPER

The beauty spirit has begun. The wild gaiety in 1400 pairs of eyes is a mixture of undifferented term-paper terror and the anticipation of any Christmas frivolities. This is the season in which Winthrop openly admits its "good will to men" philosophy. Dining room carols and special classical music are definitely Christmassy. Christmas is just beyond that next assigned quiz.

O Happenings...

THE REC ROOM

With an estimate of 800 persons enjoying the "kev" its "freshest" Halloween over the week end, the "kev" was opened officially Saturday afternoon, with a house-warming to which the entire student body was invited. Winthrop's "kev" is overly crowded. The name of the guest register varied from the usual navy and white participants to campus visitors from New York City. Situated at the table was Miss handing as, Catherine Ross, Teresa Clark, Marjory McAloney, Harriet Mullin, Dar Fisher, Marjorina, Patterson, Donald E. Payne, counselor, "Little Bama," A.L. France, Miss Millicent G. Griggs, Eula, William Clinton and Lee Hendricks.

STUDENT-FACULTY TEA

The Student-Faculty committee of the "E" entertained Saturday night after the movie with an informal tea held in the library of Thurmond hall. Cookies and doughnuts were served. Faculty members and students attending the affair were Miss Elizabeth Furr, Miss Jane Chung, Miss Faye Shawe, Miss Tresa Malinoski, Bethie Drahakowski, Elizabeth Nace, Mary Smith, Doris Clarke, Marjory McAloney, Miss Anne Jenkins, Miss Virginia Johnson, Miss Elizabeth S. Moore, Miss Edna Taylor, Miss Elizabeth Nace, who visited daughter, Miss Lee, and Miss M. R. Swoonder of Columbia, guest of their daughter, June Bender.

WEEK END LEADS

This week's business has been such a regular feature of the "vulture" that we now feel no introduction is necessary. You know you want it just where it's there... Ann Sterling, Helen Nichols Fish, Richard and Anne James Wilson, Chester. Roberta Majewski, Linda Cotton, Dorothy Edwards, Louise, Elizabeth Clark, Johner, Elaine Brown, Irene, Ann Cantwell, Wingate, N. C. Martha Denjoy, Columbia, and Paula White Arnold, Chicago.

RSU Plays Wesley Foundation, Beta Alpha Meets JHA To Start Round Robins' Tournament

The novice basketball tournament gets underway this Friday afternoon, when RSU will battle a cast-out Wesley Foundation squad at 4:30. The first game of the "round robins" contest is at 5 o'clock, Beta Alpha Meets JHA, with the leading Kirkpatrick Hayes, chairmain.

Wednesday afternoon, the scheduled games are RSU vs. Beta Alpha, and JHA vs. Wesley Foundation. RSU and JHA will clash in the first game today, Friday afternoon, and Wesley Foundation and Beta Alpha will be in the second.

Novice Cage Tournament

The fifth team to be paired in the novice tournament was the Young Democrats, who will defeat another team the first round.

A meeting of the 95 freshmen who signed up recently to form the fresh troupe, previously scheduled for last night, will be held Monday night at 8 in the open air, announced Chairman Haynes. About 150 will be enrolled in the school the first day of the season.

Special Programs Committee Show Health Movies

The special program committee of the health education class, headed by Betty Bennett and Sue White, is planning several health films to the student groups during the winter.

The movies will represent all phases of good health and how to maintain it through economy, nutrition and recreation.

Betty Bennett, co-chairman of the committee, said that "The Truth in Medicine" is being shown Wednesday night at 7:30, with Pat Whitinghouse, the hostess, "Distinctively different in that it exhibits a 'nose.'"

Through the program, the students will be encouraged to visit their own doctors. The chairman notes that all members observe the new posters.
