Training School

By CLAIRE MARSHALL

The taking of the issue before the students began in 1922. This fall, as a member of aicker's generosity, Winthrop has been given a new station for band and seven times every Saturday. The Winthrop Radio Station, being installed in the College clock tower and destined to the students of Winthrop. Seven, during the Christmas season, the Winthrop chimes are present once a week during the hours the station is on the air. The usual schedule of hymnary includes a variety of carols, some at 12:00 in the evening, and during other non-holiday hours it is substituted by a popular song.

MUSICSCHOLARSHIP

A music scholarship is offered for Winthrop by senior music majors, under the auspices of the Skull and Bones, one of the most illustrious of these in recent years was Vivian Mayor, a music student who now is studying to be a composer. She is the recipient of a music scholarship.

MacLeod, Galloway

Advertising staff members are also happy to advertise this year because the War has made it possible for so many students to become involved in the arts. The staff is made up of all students and faculty members.

Masquerades

There have been many masquerades in Winthrop, and many another will be seen. The most amazing revelation of the masquerade was the one that took place in the Winthrop French club.

Sixth Grade in Assembly

A general survey of the activities of the sixth grade was made up on this year. Many students have contributed their thoughts to the day's proceedings.
