MISS LUCILE HUDSON PRESENTS SCIENCE CLUB MEETING

The annual observance of Founders Day was observed at the college on Monday, January 4, in connection with the 40th anniversary of the Columbia schools over which President D. B. Johnson has presided. The occasion was met by representatives of the high schools of Louisville, Missouri, and the University of Wisconsin and Oxford, Kansas, with both B. S. and M. A. degrees. Miss Richardson was present from the University of Wisconsin and Oxford, Kansas, and has never been seen by the students of Winthrop. The following program was presented:

TUESDAY, JANUARY 6

The Social Significance of Humor. Dr. Burton said that nowhere in America is the true spirit of American education more vigorously demonstrated than in the Winthrop College of Education. He is also an author of plays and fiction. Dr. Burton has held the position of Editor of the Winthrop College Review, and has never been seen by the students of Winthrop College.
