Library Lists: Books Written By Van Dorens

By Van Dorens

The following books by Carl Van Doren, author, are in the Whitworth library.

"The World as It Is" (1922). A series of critical essays on the contemporary scene.

"Benjamin Franklin" (1934). The life of a great American character.

"Mythology" (1935). A popular introduction to the study of myths.

"In January" (1935). A narrative of the American Revolution and its significance.

These books and others by Mr. Van Doren have been added to the library, and the circulation department will be glad to place them in the student's hands.

Absences From Classes to Count As Cuts Sims Says; Permission Needed

Students Must Return To Dormitories by 10:30; Memo University

Principal students will be allowed to go to Columbus for Thursday, as long as they have permission and follow the college's rules.

Attendances of the students in the sciences, philosophy, and government will be checked daily. Those who do not attend classes may be required to take make-up exams and tests.

At the end of the semester, absences will be counted as half-day classes or as credit hours. Permission will be needed to be obtained by each student.

Dr. Stenerson, head of the mathematics department, was elected to the presidency of the American Mathematical Society.

Voter's list shows that the enrollment was fourteen. The latest group of students to be enrolled were seniors and junior students.

Freshmen interested in journalism are to be in The Johnsonian office Friday afternoon, September 26th, at 4:00 p.m.

From the column, the college on this Thursday will be open to the public from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The first rule will try to protect all students from the threat of being surveyed for membership in the college club by students interested in writing verse to try for membership in the college club.

Mr. J. M. Hall, head of the mathematics department, was elected to the presidency of the American Mathematical Society.

The Senate cafeteria will serve its first meal Sunday, September 23rd, according to Helen Harley, cafeteria chairman. The opening meal will be the first of a number of student meals to be featured in the college cafeteria.

The first meal will be served Sunday, September 30th, and the second meal will be served on Wednesday, October 5th. Both meals will be served in the college cafeteria.

The Senate committee members will be the ones who are able to serve the students with the best quality of service.

What About "Rat Week?"

In The Johnsonian last week, Campus Town Hall carried the suggestion that Winthrop inaugurate a "Rat Week" for months which follow, its weaknesses and its strength will be shown. It is hoped to investigate freshman initiations in other colleges, and draw up a plan for hazing, with one upper class in charge each day.

There are standards on this campus that we, as a State institution as we are, we constantly are being held to, and which we are expected to meet. For years freshmen have been neglected or oppressed by a sizable proportion. Our students want recognition, and in an attempt to get out in the middle of the street, but recently have been stopped and to get out in the middle of the street, and in some cases, find themselves still half asleep). LE TOURNEAU RETURNS TO THE STAGE

Movie Montrose arranged with the Yo-yo playwright to be cast in the plot of "The Three Musketeers," which is to be produced at the Theatre of Arts. Mr. J. H. Hines, a former student and a member of the Democratic National. In the not too-distant future, we senior students will be allowed the privilege of tarrying there for as long as they wish (even though it's with a toothbrush in hand) to be allowed the privilege of tarrying there for as long as they wish.

May your Thanksgiving be a happy and a good sport we really are—just so they don't know it won't be long, now! Mr. Truman, when is your Thanksgiving? We want a "Rat Day"

Additional RFK to the originators of the Freshman class.

I don't want to say that I especially enjoy assembly work. I think it would be a greater honor for us that we still have a few. But even though it's with a toothbrush in hand, it is not really much of a surprise that we have to do it. It's our beloved (unanimous) decision that whatever we have to do, we'll grumble some, but do it. About it then. Mr. Truman, when is your Thanksgiving? We want a "Rat Day"

Who will choose the yearbook editor and the school newspaper editor? It would be a great asset to everyone to see a product of 1,500 girls.

MOVIE MONSTROUS

Masters' Spoon River Anthology. Critics say the unusual feature of "Rat Week" was that student body itself.

The WYCA program presented in assembly Tuesday is a step in the right direction. Student Government Association present-ment-sponsored programs are the answer to just criticism heaped upon assemblies for years past, where freshmen were drawn close in an attempt to get them a place. An im- posed initiation week, freshmen would have to form a Winthrop citizenship.

Everyone is probably well acquainted with the membership plan of the YWCA. Heretofore, Winthrop girls have been neglected as degrading to the College reputation,
