Students File Petition To Local Red Cross Chapter

Organization Of Campus Red Cross Unit Begins;
Jean Graham Is Chairman

Students Interested Are Asked To Meet Tuesday To Conduct Elections

A letter has been sent to students, asking them to sign a petition at the Red Cross office, 106, Commons Building, and to call the approval of President E. Carell Jarrell. An assembly is to be held on Tuesday, October 15, to consider the petition.

Graham, Junior of Spartanburg, was named temporary chairman for the proposed unit at a meeting of the Student Council, Thursday, September 26. Miss Graham, who is a senior at Winthrop, was selected after lining up a number of students, who were selected as temporary members of the new unit.

Mrs. Mary Pagan, director of the Red Cross, said that the unit would be established by the Victory's office. The plan is to use the Red Cross as a result of the influenza epidemic, and the affiliation of the Red Cross, which was organized after World War I, is to use the Red Cross as a result of the influenza epidemic, and the affiliation of the Red Cross, which was organized after World War I, is to be used to carry out the work of the v. e. w. e. h. s. WHAT WE LIVE BY

MARCIA GALLOWAY

 Included in this week’s edition, we have some interesting developments in the field of student government and community involvement. The Student Government Association conducted the poll on how students felt about the current week-end policy. The results were?

The poll was on "Friday night," as the first of every week is designated as the weekend for the purpose of checking in and out. The results indicated a large majority of students were not concerned with the policy. The poll revealed that many students felt the current system was fair and that the proposed week-end system may work.

I wasn't able to stop by your bank to thank you all personally for the wonderful service and help I received while I was there. It would be wonderful to express to you my appreciation bow and thank you for all your help and assistance. We shall not forget South Carolina and all the wonderful people I had the pleasure of meeting. I'm homesick for Carolina, but I find it very nice here and I shall learn to like it.

This young lady's home is on another continent, and it made the "Old Reliable" feel good to know that it had been of some service to her while she was far away from her home.
