TO FAIRLANDY—

Friday evening, will it be to the University? Len is coming from Chicago and I am going to pick him up at the train. I have a notebook for some of our friends to read and a few letters to write. I hope to get to the University soon to meet up with them. Perhaps they will be there too.

Our plans for the weekend include visiting the Science Museum and the Art Institute. We are both excited about the prospect of spending time together and exploring these places.

The weather forecast looks good, so we plan on spending most of the day outside. We will probably have lunch at a nearby restaurant before heading to the museum.

I can't wait to see what new sights and sounds the city has to offer. It will be a perfect way to spend the weekend.
Winthrop Home Demonstration Woman Credits Having With Being Power of World Line

(Rock Mill) Hickory Winthrop College and campus are the center of home economics and homemaking endeavor and interest, and the demonstration women are at the heart of it. They are working on demonstration farms and in their homes with the same enthusiasm and energy as they would on a farm.

The demonstration women are working with a new enthusiasm and energy. They are filling the campus with their demonstrations and experiments. They are working with a new enthusiasm and energy. They are filling the campus with their demonstrations and experiments.
