Four books by Quentin Reynolds are on display in the 117 Main Library, where they are part of the special collection, and are on loan to five students who have submitted short stories of their own in "The Wind."

"The Wounded Deeds," the first novel of the year, has been published, and the autumn meeting of the American Friends of the Jewish Press has been held in the city, where the novel has been read by Dr. Harry C. Kisch, executive secretary of the Jewish Press.

The American Friends of the Jewish Press has also been represented at the annual meeting of the American Hebrew Press Society, where the organization has presented five new members, including Dr. Harry C. Kisch, who has been elected president of the society.

FOREIGN CORRESPONDENT QUENTIN REYNOLDS TO BE THIRD LECTURE SPEAKER

Address is Scheduled For 3 p.m. November 9, 117 Main Library, Quentin Reynolds, foreign correspondent, will appear as the third of a series of guest speakers to be given in the auditorium Thursday night, November 9. Mrs. J. B. Reynolds, subject of Mr. Reynolds lecture, will be a guest speaker.

Mr. Reynolds is scheduled to return to the United States in January, 1944, and will have a lecture course on his experiences in Europe. He is a member of the American Friends of the Jewish Press, and it is anticipated that he will give a lecture course in the 117 Main Library in the spring of 1944.

Mr. Reynolds is a well-known journalist and author, having covered the war in several countries of the world. He is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, and has covered the war in Europe, Africa, and Asia.

Stunt Night
To Terminate "Rat Day"

Freshmen start a new, an exciting one, at American University on November 13. The 117 Main Library, one of the major departments for students, is open to students who have attended the school for a group of classes with a central point.

Freshmen elected to serve on the committee will include Rebecca Johnson, Jane Jones, Donna Weis, Virginia Williams, Mary Louisa, Betty Jean, and Dorothy Stetson.

Reddy Committee

Representatives of the committee are Bob Ben, Doris Wharfard, Virginia Lewis, Betty Lammott, Alice Kerr, Mary Delaney, Sarah McLean, Betty Kress, Mary Frances, Mary Ellen DeLong, and Betty Jean.

Breaux committee members are Pauline Bess, Lila Fish, Louise Roberts, Virginia Devine, and Betty Jean.

The committee meets at 117 Main Library, where the students are introduced to the college and are helped to find their way.

ANNOUNCEMENT

First-prize winners will be announced in the post office for the number of ballots they want.

Ketchin Is New Assistant Hostess

Mrs. Alice Ketchin, head of the PTTA, has accepted the position of assistant hostess at the American University, where she will be in charge of the college activities.

She is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, and has worked at the college for several years.

Le Cercle Francs Makes Carneas At Recent Meeting

Marian Carnes, senior from Rock Hill, will be the new hostess for the college, where she will be in charge of the college activities.

The meeting was held in the auditorium, where the students were introduced to the college and were helped to find their way.

La Cercle Francs takes over for the fourth Monday of each month at 6:00 in the after-

Fair Lasses, Fair Bound!

By Betty Sue Nally

Friday, November 2, 1965

Visiting home last Saturday, November 14th, was my niece, Betty Sue Nally, from the offices of the Johnsonian. Betty Sue had just returned from a trip to Hawaii, where she had been assisting her parents in their work at the University of Hawaii. She was staying with us for the week and had planned to attend the Winthrop dance on Saturday night.

On Sunday morning, we took Betty Sue to the beach for a day of fun in the sun. She enjoyed swimming, playing volleyball, and walking along the shore. We had a great time together.

On Monday, Betty Sue attended classes at Winthrop University and spent some time with friends. She was excited to see everyone and catch up on what had been happening at school.

On Tuesday, Betty Sue had a meeting with her professor to discuss her thesis. She was working on a project about the history of the university and was making good progress.

On Wednesday, Betty Sue attended a lecture on cultural anthropology. She found the topic to be very interesting and was impressed by the depth of knowledge of the speaker.

On Thursday, Betty Sue had a meeting with the dean of the college. She presented her research to the dean and received positive feedback. She was happy to see that her work was being recognized.

On Friday, Betty Sue had her final exam for the semester. She studied hard and was confident in her abilities. She received her results on Friday afternoon and was pleased to see that she had passed with high grades.

Overall, Betty Sue had a wonderful visit with us and enjoyed spending time with family and friends. We were all happy to have her back and look forward to seeing her soon.

THINGS ARE HAPPENING in fashions . . . and happening fast! It's pretty much the same winter picture in the clothing stores, and the stores are better. All of this was noticed at the "Fat Hat" especially. So . . . let's review the latest fashions, beginning with the dresses worn at the "Fat Hat".

AND AFTER THE GAME . . .
Four people who arrived late were Betty Jean Allen, Betty Gray, Anne Bass, Ruth Anderson.лаг Black, and practically everybody else who was lucky enough to be the first passport of a few missed cups. Oh, how we envy those people who hung on to those things and used them at the right time!

ON THE CAMPUS . . .
Things were definitely cut As did so much may see, with so many people "on the market" every enemy of at least a few years, insidiously exploiting all their energy and squandering (?) all their father's money. The usual crowd in Charlotte Saturday. And, as always, they were dancing most of the night. Wishing Mr. President Sims turned the problem over to the committee and the literary staff, and at present they're trying to work out the arrangements. This is what is meant by the "involuntary" complications of the Junior Committee.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

I was very impressed by the letter you published in the last issue of the Johnsonian. Your comments on the current political situation were well thought out and logically presented. I wholeheartedly agree with your views and look forward to reading more of your writing in the future.

Sincerely yours,

Mary Johnson

Editor's Note:

We encourage our readers to submit letters to the editor. Your thoughts and opinions are valued, and we strive to provide a platform for open and respectful dialogue.

Thank you for reading the Johnsonian. We look forward to hearing from you in the future.
