The Lights Go On Again

CHRISTMAS IS KNOCKING OUT all over the Winthrop campus, as lights go on, pack- age by package, and gift by gift. Last night's Christmas dinner in the Music Building has been held and combined the celebration of 1,526 graduates of the Class of 1945, as well as the College has ever served.

Biggest thrill of the current season is the mammoth magnificence on front cam- pus. Don't you agree? And there's a llow, the trees glowing with Christ- mas lights.

Johnston has again donned its festive trappings. Manager, hanging dangerously from a mantel, hoity, lights color and candles adorn the rooms, decorated by the four classes.

the singing of Christmas carols for this class and the next is an appropriate note, school by college card.
