ELECTION OF 44-45 CAMPUS LEADERS

Class of 1945 is Final Vote Today. With it comes responsibility to be worthy of the privilege of electing their own leaders.

Today's Johnsonian announces the candidates for Student Government. Be sure to use your right to vote, for the thoughtful and critical analysis of these candidate qualifications and platforms can provide the answer to the election question.

IT'S A DRY YEAR. This year's election campaign has been marked by a general desire to avoid controversy. With the absence of any major issues, the candidates have concentrated on personal qualifications and platform promises.

THE JOHNSONIAN informs them as their voting begins. It is essential, but destructive campaigning often provided a leader with an assured election.

The voting will take place from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. in the Thurmond hall. Such interest in Winthrop's "fairest flowers," has exercised the mind for the last three years.

WHERE IS SENIORS' glance warily tonight? 5:30, 8:45; sophomores, the second Wednesday evening at 8:45; juniors, the third Wednesday evening at 8:45; seniors, the fourth Wednesday evening at 8:45. Club members are invited to attend, and all are invited to have their club sent a representative with a feather cut? Dr. Dorothy Jones, has provided for Winthrop's "fairest flowers," has exercised the mind for the last three years.

WHAT WITH THE CLEMSON DANCE. Valentine’s day, the junior social and "shaking down" of "attention" for Ann Brooks, Jean Black, Marie Wilson, Carolene Lowe, Jane Castellani, Betty Jesse, Rosemary Koby, and Barbara Culp made it a happy day for all who attended. Their last day at Winthrop University was their birthday, with the object of being as gay and delightful as possible.

COLUMBIA WEDDING

Down to Columbia went Mary Price and Margaret Mead to be at former WC student Mary Pudding’s wedding to Dallas Gershould.
