Effects of War on College Life

The executive committee of the Winthrop College Student government, under the direction of Mr. Sibley, is taking steps to ensure the continued operation of the college despite the effects of war.

The executive committee expressed its appreciation to the students for their cooperation and support during these difficult times.

Sibley stresses appropriation needs for WC

Winthrop's need for an increase in appropriations was brought to the attention of the Student Senate at its meeting on February 14 by President H. S. Sibley. The college is facing a difficult financial situation due to the effects of the war.

Other topics discussed at the meeting included the need for new buildings and the importance of maintaining a strong educational program.

High Schools To Attend JHA Meet

Plans for the first high school JHA meet have been finalized. The meet will be held at Winthrop College on February 19. The meet will include a formal discussion on topics related to college preparatory education.

Students are encouraged to attend and participate in the meet.

Tuttle, Chalmers, Emphasize "Excellent Way" in Assembly

"To every man speak a word and to every woman shew an action," was the assembly's theme for February 19. The assembly was attended by students from the high schools in the area.

Committee on the Arts

The committee on the arts, under the chairmanship of Dr. Tuttle, is working on the organization of a new arts and crafts program for the school year.

Frayer Collected By Judge Thurmond

Judge Thurmond, acting for the calendar, recently collected the off-duty officers of the Winthrop College police force. The officers were present at the gathering.

The collection was held to ensure the continued operation of the police force.

James R. Martin, faculty adviser for the Campus Library, presents a new book on library science, "The Essentials of Library Science." The book is a comprehensive guide for students entering the field of library science.

Winthrop is a member of the South Carolina Library Association, which is organizing a conference in Columbia on March 28. The conference is open to all library professionals.

The conference will provide an opportunity for professionals to share ideas and discuss current trends in the field.

This concludes the report on the activities of the Winthrop College community for the week ending February 22.
On Cheating

Cheating has made an ugly mark this year, seriously in two or three cases, and less seriously, but just as uncleanly, in a number of other cases.

Cheating is undoubtedly the most negative of school activities. Such a lack of principles as cheating implies may result in the most serious of all rights.

Cheating is not a matter of a test which the teacher designed, more it is a matter of the regard fellow students. The cheat is the betrayer of each of his classmates.

What small gains one excites from cheating! In believing she has cleverly "put something over" the cheater has lost the most treasured quality of life, self-respect. The officer not only robs other students of their rightful rewards, but robs himself of the chance for genuine achievement.

Student conscience indicates stress on the part of the cheater, and usually results in a realization of its futility. The John's Red Cross service is a growing responsibility. An expanding peacetime service is greatly needed. The Red Cross is a service to humanity—helping those in distress regardless of race, creed, or color.

We value our college education, and university as much as any knowledge at our fingertips as possible.

Cheating is a matter of the regard Winthrop college formals as just a time for gaiety and happiness. Some are in hospitals, some are a growing responsibility.

Some will never be home, nor and we must still give! If we have honor and we must still give! If we have honor, We believe the poll results are the most important of the year, and seem to wear, seeing the comfortable, casual atmosphere.

The Johnsonian wants to dwni a reputation of the next of kin. All I am and all I have learned is fair enough, one thorough for another.

The Nominal Red Cross drives, in program clear the air, and put an end to this unfortunate college conduct.

We'll be glad when they disappear altogether. We welcome these peaceful efforts.

Peabody Study Reports WC Physical Plant Needs Modernizing, More Room

Group Says Consent Rate Too Small, Does Not Maintain Standards

Enlargement and modernization of the physical plant is one of the most urgent needs on the Winthrop campus according to the Peabody survey of public higher education in South Carolina, which has set $1,100,000 as the minimum to be spent for these purposes to meet these needs.

Recommended by the survey for the welfare of Winthrop students is more responsibility, which is lacking because of the pressing need which requires parent participation.

Winthrop's physical plant is limited and not in the form of a modern laboratory or dormitory program and counseling center for which are totally out of such regular survey.

The chorus is under the direction of Miss Virginia Skelton, winner of a national tournament last year, and will soil different positions.

"CUMBERLAND ORCHESTRA" WCV freshman orchestra will also be a feature of the program, as well as thefv for the 1946-47 school term, according to Elizabeth Dunlap, chief freshman counselor.

Any sophomores, juniors, or seniors desiring to apply for concentration in music should apply, the "C" will choose students to fill the positions.

Landrum Will Speak on State Inflation Issue

Miss Lottie J. Landrum of the home demonstration department will be one of the speakers at the College, according to Miss Elizabeth Dunlap, chief freshman counselor.

"Fishing for the Time of Day" by Townsend.

The weekly student music recital will be held in the Music building from 9:30 a.m. to 10 a.m. on Wednesday, February 20.

The famous Symphony No. 5 in C Minor, by Beethoven, was given by the orchestra, and was introduced by the famous violinist, Elizabeth Johnson, head of the Home Economics Department. The orchestra, conducted by Ormandy, played before one of Winthrop's most enthusiastic audiences.

He has also been quoted as the belief that the physical plant of Winthrop college be expended.

Students See Voting Machine on Exhibition

A voting machine was brought to the attention of the Winthrop student body in order to "test their votes." The machine was displayed in the Administration building from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Wednesday, February 20.

The program will be concluded by Miss Adele Yoshida, director of the American Federation of Labor, with Miss Mary Margaret MacManus, as soloist.

The chorus is under the direction of Ada Moser. Several members of the chorus are able to get near you (visit you)." I hope to get near you whether I can be agreeable family in Holland. I hope to get near you (visit you)."

In the spring of 1920, they had the same experiences and realized that they could take a postcard from the hotel and send it to their friends.
