A worth-while task has been finished and congratulations are in order. Young ladies, you cannot realize today the full value of your accomplishment. It will in all likelihood pay off in years to come. Suffice it to say, you are in position to face the world and fulfill the high purpose your parents and teachers had in mind.

To the Class of 1927

Going out to face the issues of life, we can think of no better preparation than four years' training at Winthrop. Fortunate are those who receive it!

We shall miss the Class of '27 and the enthusiasm of the Junior class. Our Mill Work a Specialty.

The college girls will be going home. We will miss them, and look forward to their return in the fall.
