Mrs. Raymond Clapper To Open ’47-’48 Lectures Tuesday Night, October
Lecturer Began Career As Social Worker; Is Author Of 9 Books

Mrs. Raymond Clapper, wife of the nationally syndicated columnist and author who died in an airplane crash in World War II, will open the 1947-48 lecture season at the Rock Hill branch of the College. Her first lecture is scheduled for Tuesday night, October 6, at 8:00 p.m. in the College Chapel.

Mrs. Clapper, who is a native of South Carolina, began her career as a social worker three years after her marriage to R. W. Clapper, who was killed in action during the American Red Cross’s tour of foreign service.

From the experience she received in public speaking in that capacity, she was recommended for the position of social worker, and Mrs. Clapper is now recognized as an authority in economic and social fields.

Aside from her public life, the notable features of Mrs. Clapper are her two children. Her second child is enrolled in the College.

In addition to lecturing, Mrs. Clapper is also the author of her own book on social work. Her book is to be published by the American Red Cross.

Mrs. Clapper is the wife of the late John Clapper, a member of the College’s faculty.

WC Banner Paraded In Puerto Rico

A banner bearing the name of Winthrop college was displayed at Puerto Rico’s famous “Fiestas Patrias” last for the first time by Judge de Munoz, superintendent, August 3, according to Mrs. Teresina de Munoz, head of the modern dance department.

The “Fiestas Patrias” is an annual celebration honoring students of Puerto Rico. It is divided into three sections: Business and agriculture in the country, and universities in the United States. This year’s event was held in the plaza of the city.

Mrs. Munoz, who carried the banner, was dressed in diaphanous white and was crowned “Miss Puerto Rico” for the occasion.

We want the freshmen to feel the same way, admire the Winthrop way of life. We classes, adjusted to Winthrop ways, are college life are the frosh. The other three undoubtedly, everyone is by now aware of freshmen participate in their annual freshman beauty contest, attended the Junior-Freshman party, and are "parties of the Winthrop Theatre. They will go to Sen- inances has increased.

The freshmen will be settled throughout the years, as tradition holds, at the beginning of the fall semester, the President for the reception of all these safety steps is concerned with rumbling. The College Police and the Winthrop Echo are always on the alert even of those students who once asked those particular rides. Not only rumbling, but walking also, even across the campus at night, can be dangerous. If you see any activity which you feel is suspicious, contact the police, and they will make sure everyone’s well.

For the time being, however, students must keep in mind that the Handbook. New rules and regulations are in place, and those who violate these rules must face the consequences. For instance, if a student is caught rumbling, they will be suspended from the campus for a certain period. The Dean of Women has clarified this to the freshmen.

As for the upcoming events, the freshmen should mark their calendars for the annual freshman beauty contest, the Junior-Freshman party, and the Winthrop Theatre. They will be held on the second and third of the month, respectively.

It is the duty of every girl to take an interest in campus life. We encourage all students to participate in the various events and activities, and we look forward to welcoming the freshmen to the community.

This is a challenge which we all must meet. Let us work together to make Winthrop a better place.

Three New Members To PE Staff

Mrs. Viola Mitchell, Miss Gertrude Knellikin, and Mrs. Louise Miller have been added to the faculty staff of the physical education department, it was announced recently.

Mrs. Mitchell, a native of Winthrop, is a graduate of the University of Michigan. Mrs. Knellikin has been a physical education department at Harford College in Ontario, and has also served as a physical education teacher in the City of Gary, Ind., and has received a B.A. degree in physical education at the University of Indiana and a M.A. degree at the University of Iowa in 1948. She has been the Lew Wallace high school in Gary for one year, and for the past three summers has been instructor of Camp Wanaus in Maine. Miss Knellikin is a member of the American Association of Women Teachers and Swimming.

Mrs. Miller, a native Back Hill, served as a substitute teacher in the physical education department during the spring, but is now a regular member. She is a graduate of Winthrop, and has served as an instructor in government. Mrs. Miller teaches physical and health.
Frosh Have Fun ‘n Frolic At Churches

Freshmen festivities came to an end September 13, with church parties under the direction of church presidents and students in attendance from the First Presbyterian Church. The service was a mass of color, with a “colored” choir being represented by a group of Winthrop students. The service included the playing of “Amazing Grace” and “How Great Thou Art” from the First Presbyterians and “The Lord’s Prayer” and “Silent Night” from the Methodist Presbyterians. Mrs. Henry Smith, Mrs. Mary E. Vier, Mrs. Thomas F. Paterson, and Miss Ann J. Smith, presented the new student body with a program of singing and prayers.

Some Of Things

PRESIDENT’S RECEPTION

Almost every faculty member turned out in “full dress” to greet President’s reception, Thursday, September 11, at the annual President’s reception at Johnson Hall, the guest of honor being the President of Wake Forest College. The President’s reception included the opening of the school year and the welcoming of all the new students to the Winthrop family. The President, Dr. W. J. Hardin, was in attendance, along with his wife and daughter. The reception was held in the new Student Union building, and was an opportunity for the students to meet and enjoy the company of their President and Mrs. Henry Smith, who were present. The reception was a great success, and the students were very pleased with the program.

MORE FRESHMAN FUN

Friday the 13th was a red-letter day in the freshman orientation week at Winthrop College. The new students were shown around campus and introduced to the faculty and staff. The day was filled with activities, including a parade in circus fashion, and the students were introduced to the Winthrop family.

Of People

FRESHMAN STEP OUT

The new freshmen are not only hardworking, but also social. They went out to explore the city and attend social events. The freshmen gathered in the Student Union building to celebrate the beginning of the school year. The atmosphere was filled with excitement and anticipation for the new academic year.

GOING AND COMING

Faye Ann Johnson returned to campus to attend the freshman orientation. She was greeted with a warm welcome by the faculty and staff. The day was filled with activities, including a parade in circus fashion, and the students were introduced to the Winthrop family.

MINI ORANGEBURG

Sarah Thompson, senior at Orangeburg, made a happy trip to Mulline for the tuberculosis day returned after vacationing at their summer home at Black Mountain.

President’s Reception Is Campus Event

The annual President’s reception, held September 11 in Johnson hall, was the site for the fall student organization meeting, a full house of all the new students, and counselors.

Elle A. Gandy, chief freshman counselor, and Mary Ellen Jenkins, president of the “Y” were first in the receiving line, followed by President and Mrs. J. W. Sharp, Kate Green Hardin, dean of students, and Mrs. J. W. Shinn, registrar of the alumni, Mrs. Ethel M. Meyers, business advisor, and Mrs. W. B. Nichols, secretary of the YWCA.

Special guests included Mary Hasley, president of the Student Government association, Peggy Ponderer, president of the Student Council, and Beth Shrum, president of the Athletic association.

Johnny hard was a mass of color, with students and faculty and administration in formal attire. The evening was filled with laughter and joy, and the students were very pleased with the program.
