EXCITEMENT ENHIGHED

The P. C. Cameron football game and Homecoming activities took place on the Oxford Athletic Field today at 3 p.m. in a life-sized green and white game.

The game was held in front of a crowd of people. The game was against the Spartanburg Gamecock.

The homecoming activities were held after the game and included a parade, a bonfire, and a dance.

The homecoming king and queen were crowned at the end of the activities. The king was Bob Johnson, and the queen was Mary Smith.

The homecoming court also included Misses Betty Lee, Jan Scott, and Jean Smith.

"When I was eight I used to think at ten

I'd be so very old and big, why,

I'd lay my fairy-books and dollies

And seventeen thought twenty truly old;

And twenty, as the shining days unrolled,

I fell very sure, she be still

I'd be old, and glad to die;

Al ninety I'll be old, and glad to die;

Al ninety, contemplate my century.
