THE OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE STUDENT BODY OF WINTHROP COLLEGE

VOLUME IV, NUMBER 16

WINTHROP EPISODES

The debate between Waveland College and Winthrop College will be held on Monday, April 11th, in the auditorium of the Student Union. Both sides have been preparing for this event, and both have sent representatives to the Student Union to present their cases. The debate will be moderated by Mr. E. C. Harris, the director of the debate team at Waveland College.

The topic of the debate will be "The Role of Religion in Education." The Waveland College side will argue that religion should be a part of the curriculum, while the Winthrop College side will argue that religion is a personal matter and should not be a part of the curriculum.

The debate will be broadcast live on Waveland College's radio station, and will also be streamed online. The audience is encouraged to come and listen to the debate, and to participate in the discussion afterwards.

RELIGION AND ART

The topic of this week's discussion will be "Religion and Art." The discussion will be held on Thursday, April 14th, in the auditorium of the Student Union. The discussion will be moderated by Dr. J. E. Smith, the director of the Department of Religion.

The discussion will focus on the relationship between religion and art, and how this relationship has evolved over time. The discussion will also consider the role of art in the dissemination of religious messages, and the response of the religious community to these messages.

The discussion will be open to the public, and all are encouraged to attend. The discussion will be broadcast live on Waveland College's radio station, and will also be streamed online. The audience is encouraged to come and listen to the discussion, and to participate in the discussion afterwards.

SPORTS

The next meeting of the Student Conference will be held on Wednesday, April 20th, in the auditorium of the Student Union. The meeting will be moderated by Mr. E. C. Harris, the director of the debate team at Waveland College.

The meeting will focus on the topic of "The Role of Athletics in Education." The meeting will be open to the public, and all are encouraged to attend. The meeting will be broadcast live on Waveland College's radio station, and will also be streamed online. The audience is encouraged to come and listen to the meeting, and to participate in the meeting afterwards.

Don't Fall I'll Hear Vassar-Winthrop Debate Tonight

The debate between Waveland College and Winthrop College will be held on Monday, April 11th, in the auditorium of the Student Union. This will be the first of a series of debates that will be held between the two colleges over the next year. The debate will be moderated by Mr. E. C. Harris, the director of the debate team at Waveland College.

The debate will be broadcast live on Waveland College's radio station, and will also be streamed online. The audience is encouraged to come and listen to the debate, and to participate in the discussion afterwards.

THE VACCINE SHOTS

The vaccine shots will be given at Waveland College's Student Health Center on Wednesday, April 20th. The shots will be administered by the school nurse, and will be available to all students, faculty, and staff. The shots will be given free of charge, and no appointment is necessary.

The shots will be given from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., and are expected to last until 5:00 p.m. The vaccination will be given on a first-come, first-served basis. Students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to come and get their shots as soon as possible.

..."On the Corner"
The Norfolk house where President Lincoln was assassinated was a scene of great rejoicing when the Union forces captured Richmond on April 2, 1865. The victorious soldiers' cheers were heard throughout the city.

When Field Marshal Haig, who commanded the British forces in the Battle of the Somme, died of pneumonia in November 1928, the world paid tribute to him as a great commander. He had led his troops to victory in the Somme battle and had restored British prestige in France.

The New England house designed by Frank Lloyd Wright is a masterpiece of modern architecture. It features a series of interconnected rooms that open up to a central courtyard, creating a feeling of continuous space.

A rapidly growing death-rate among the inhabitants of San Francisco caused a great deal of concern when the city was buried alive. More than 300 persons were killed in the wake of the 1906 earthquake and fire.

The Royal Antelope Expedition was a diplomatic mission to reach the South Pole and bring back samples of冰雪. The expedition was led by Sir Harry Debenham, who was later appointed Prime Minister of New Zealand.

Norwegian legislation, aimed at protecting the nation's resources, was enacted in 1937. It was said that the room would not exist until after April 1, as there were no other options.

The funeral of the king of Norway will be a major event in the capital city. The body of King Haakon VII will be accompanied by the royal family and government officials.

The new bridge over the river will be a landmark in the city. It will be built with new materials and will be a symbol of progress.

The American delegation consists of a number of representatives of news agencies, including The Times. Among the foreign guests are a number of leading figures, including George Bernard Shaw and Firmin Gemier.

The Norwegian house defeated the French in a critical battle, leading to the collapse of Napoleon's army. The victory was celebrated throughout the nation.

Some of the benefits of modern technology are highlighted in the story. The telephone, for example, is shown as an essential tool for communication.
