WINTHROP-YASSAR
DEBATE INNOVATION

Winthrop students will take part in an intercollegiate debate series against Vassar College. The purpose of the debate is to determine the relative advantages of each institution.

GUARDIAN FUND
MARCH 21 AWARD

Following the (unusual) example of the American and Canadian Foundations, the Winthrop Student Government has established a fund, called the "Guardian Fund," for the purpose of enabling students to visit foreign countries and study abroad. The fund will be administered by a committee of three professors, and the first award has been presented to Miss Jane H. Roberts, who will study abroad in England.

AMERICAN WOMEN'S FOUNDATION

American Women's Foundation has awarded a research grant to Miss Elizabeth A. Johnson, who will study the educational systems of England and France. The grant is for the purpose of comparing the American and British educational systems.

MRS. GEO. W. SADLER VISITOR AT WINTHROP

Mrs. Geo. W. Sadler visited the college recently and addressed the students. She spoke on the importance of education and the need for continued effort in the pursuit of knowledge.

WINTHROP POETRY SOCIETY

The Poetry Society of Winthrop College held its annual meeting to elect new officers and discuss plans for future meetings. The society is composed of students interested in poetry and literature.

WINTHROP PHYSICAL CLUB

The Physical Club held its annual banquet to honor its officers and members. The banquet was attended by many students and faculty members.

WINTHROP ORCHESTRA

The Winthrop Orchestra held its annual concert to entertain the students and faculty. The orchestra performed a variety of pieces, including classical and contemporary compositions.
