FRESHMAN COMMISSION ENTERTAIN...
Every cloud has a silver lining. Through the dark clouds of Seniors' exams and report cards, the end of the year brings a new season of opportunities and challenges.

This is the end of the semester, but for many of us, the new year brings fresh beginnings. This is the time to set new goals and make meaningful changes in our lives.

Dear Old Seniors, you are on the last leg of your academic journey. You have made many achievements, and there have been many obstacles which you have overcome. You have made your mark on yourselves, your credit—having set a record for those who follow in your footsteps.

In this night before the final exam, take a good night's rest for your last test. Meet Thursday at the same time, with the same group of friends and the same old routines. It's a chance to catch up on lost sleep and keep your spirits up. That is—with a smile and a b

In a dilapidated room in a secluded part of the city, a young man named John is sitting and reflecting. He is a Native American, and his name is Iron Warrior. He's a legend in his tribe, known for his skill in hunting and fighting. His tribe is the mighty tribe of Catawba Indians, and his bloodline traces back generations of warriors. Iron Warrior's ancestors have fought bravely and bravely, and his name is now remembered in stories and songs.

Iron Warrior's mind is focused on his mission. He's about to embark on a journey to the Great Plains, where he will meet the great chief of the Cheyenne tribe. The chief has called for Iron Warrior, and he must face the challenges of the journey ahead. But Iron Warrior is ready. He's trained his body and his mind, and he knows that he can overcome any obstacle.

Iron Warrior's story is a tale of courage, bravery, and determination. It's a story of a man who never gives up, even in the face of adversity. It's a story that reminds us all of the power of the human spirit.

Iron Warrior's journey is not just about him, but about the strength of his people. It's a story of a communal effort, of all working together to achieve a common goal. This is the story of Iron Warrior, and it's a testament to the resilience of the human spirit.

Iron Warrior's story is also a call to action. It's a reminder that we all have the power to make a difference, that we all have the strength to overcome any obstacle. It's a story that inspires us to be brave, to be strong, and to never give up.

Iron Warrior's journey is a journey of the heart, a journey of the soul. It's a journey that we all can take, if we choose to do so. It's a journey that we can all learn from, and it's a journey that we can all enjoy.

Iron Warrior's story is a story of hope, a story of inspiration. It's a story that reminds us all of the power of the human spirit, and it's a story that we can all be proud of. It's a story that we can all learn from, and it's a story that we can all enjoy.

Iron Warrior's story is a story of a man who never gives up, even in the face of adversity. It's a story of a man who is determined to succeed, and it's a story of a man who is never afraid to take on a challenge. It's a story that reminds us all of the power of the human spirit, and it's a story that we can all learn from, and it's a story that we can all enjoy.

IN BEAUTIFUL LAST THURSDAY

MISS Pauline Berch, membro of the faculty, gave a rather hilarious talk on Thursday, May 5, in Wofford Hall to an appreciative audience. She was assisted by Miss Garland, member of the faculty, in dramatic and musical. It was noteworthy that she had been a member of the faculty from the beginning of the school, and that she had been active in the work of the school and in the work of the college.
