JUNIORS UPHOLD THE NEGATIVE

On the evening of May 9 the annual Junior-Senior Debate of the Intercollegiate Association was held in the Whitworth Auditorium, and the debate was won by the seniors. The topic was: "That the Intervention by the United Nations is a necessity in the present international situation." The debate was adjudicating in the manner of the Whig and Clinton debate.

The affirmative team was composed of: Misses Alphina Parker, Misses Elizabeth Smith, Misses Harriet Banks, Misses Mary Johnson, Misses Alice McDonald, Misses Ethel Garrett, and Misses Grace Hartley, while the negative team was made up of: Misses Mary Elliott, Misses Ethel Banks, Misses Frances Baxley, Misses Elizabeth Smith, Misses Grace Helms, Misses Elizabeth Hall, and Misses Sarah McDonald.

The speaker for the affirmative was Miss Elizabeth Hall, and the speaker for the negative was Miss Mary Elliott. Miss Mary Elliott was adjudged the best speaker.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT WILL GIVE ENSEMBLE PROGRAM

On May 22 the Music Department will give a small ensemble program of the music of the past in the main chapel of the college. The program will show the various types of music which have been written and performed through the ages, from the Baroque to the modern period. The concert will feature chamber music, solo works, and orchestral pieces. The program will be conducted by Dr. John Johnson, the music director, and will include performances by the college orchestra, choir, and a few soloists.

PROF. BURGIN ELECTED DEAN OF DODD COLLEGE

Prof. T. C. Burgin, of the Department of Political and Social Science, has been elected to the position of dean of Dodd College. Prof. Burgin has been on the faculty of this college for many years and is well known for his scholarship and dedication to education. He has been an active member of the academic community and has served in various capacities, including as department head.

FRESHMEN COUNSELORS MEET IN FIRST SESSION

The freshmen counselors met in the first session to discuss their roles and responsibilities. They are responsible for guiding and supporting the freshmen as they adjust to college life, helping them to integrate into the academic and social communities. The counselors provide orientation sessions, academic advising, and support services to ensure the freshmen's success.

STUDENT POETS ELECTED OFFICERS

The Student Quarterly received a great deal of interest from the student body, and many poets attended the meeting. The officers elected were: President, Emma Andrew; Vice-President, William Foster; Secretary, Mary W. Johnson; and Treasurer, John E. Smith. The club will hold regular meetings throughout the year to promote the poetry of students and to offer opportunities for creative expression.
Five young women of Winthrop Core in a room with a jewelry display and a Japanese scene. The furniture and decorations include a grand piano, paintings, and a dollhouse. The room has a high ceiling with arched windows and a chandelier. The women are wearing formal dresses and jewelry, including a necklace and earrings. The room is lit by gas lamps and candles. The women are conversing and examining the display. The overall atmosphere is elegant and serene. The text mentions the history and traditions of Winthrop College, including the class of 1928 and the annual Senior-Senior prom. The text also refers to the local community's involvement in the college's events. The name of the photographer is george a. webber.

prized was the winning piece. Even though, I thought, I always dreamt at night. When we were about to leave, the proprietress, with a twit that I couldn't understand, but that I did understand. When I asked her what she meant, she answered, "I want you to know that the lady who won the first prize, her name was Nellie MacGill. When she was a little girl..."

I nodded still further into the past, for the story was much too real to be false.

Keeping Up With the World

The defeat of Mr. Hoover in the Republican primaries and the fact that only 7 delegates in Indiana were by Mr. Hoover's manufacturing, for his so-called political friends in the state now are receiving the same treatment in that state as was given
Mr. Hoover in New York. The defeat of
