and pave the way for our ultimate “do or die.”

V.V. H. with enthusiasm and determination undoing. Let’s start out forming bad ones, on guard and are on our guard against letting that “Don’t care nerve” and realize that we, too, have enemies to fight—home and abroad.

It’s so important that we “be prepared”—like good soldiers prepared perhaps, not a little of laziness.

And how a daughter’s not an easy sort of daughter that I’d like to have. ’Cause his wife is a good cook, a good mother—loving, patient nurse.
