ETASIGMA PHI HOLDS ANNUAL INITIATION

Turner's New Members from Local Chapter Initiated Last Sat.

SOCIAL HOUR PLAYS IN AFRICAN TRIBAL WAY

Last evening we talked of Dr. Elegance, editor of Eta Sigma Phi's Magazine, the local chapter of the national fraternity for women, who with some of her squad made up a small party to visit the boxes of Brevard College. The local chapter, which has been active in various ways, held its annual initiation last week, and the members are working on a new program to be presented at the next meeting. The club is planning to have a large membership this year, and the members are determined to make a success of their organization.

GAMBARA TO GIVE PLAY

The College Band and Orchestra of the Winthrop College will present the play "Gambara" on Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock. The play is based on the life of a German artist who lived in the 16th century and was famous for his portraits. The cast includes Miss Martha Jackson as the title role, Miss Margaret Smith as her sister, Miss Margaret Davis as her mother, and Miss Martha Anderson as her servant. The play is directed by Professor E. C. Thomas.

Y. W. STUDY CLASSES BEGIN NEXT MONDAY

Dr. H. E. Davis, president of Winthrop College, will hold the first meeting of the Y. W. Study Classes on Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock. The classes are open to all students and will meet every Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock. The first class will be on the subject of "The History of the United States," and will be presented by Professor A. C. Thomas.

THE JUNIORS WILL PRESENT PLAY SATURDAY

The Junior class of Winthrop College will present the play "The Three Musketeers" on Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock. The play is based on the novel by Alexandre Dumas and is directed by Professor E. C. Thomas.

MISS OLIVE GOULD TO VISIT COLLEGE

Miss Olive Gould, a prominent figure in the college world, will visit Winthrop College next week. Miss Gould is known for her contributions to the field of education and her work with students. She will speak on the subject of "The Importance of Education in the 21st Century." Miss Gould is the head of the Department of Education at Harvard University and is a widely respected scholar in the field.

WINTRHP GIRLS PASS LIVES SAVERS' EXAM

All eight women of the Winthrop College life-saving team passed the exam Saturday, and the team is planning to go out for a swim. The exam was given by the American Red Cross, and the team is now eligible to compete in the national competition. The team is made up of Miss Margaret Smith, Miss Margaret Davis, Miss Martha Anderson, and Miss Martha Jackson.
