THANKSGIVING DAY

Over three hundred years ago, America was a nation of a spirit of thanksgiving brought upon the great nation by an opine God in the gift of a full harvest. This spirit of feasting and thanksgiving has been manifested everywhere, and all sections of the country are celebrating this day in their own particular fashion.

These facts are not the least interesting in the history of the United States. The first Thanksgiving Day was held in 1621, when the Pilgrims of Plymouth celebrated the harvest of corn and the blessings of the Almighty God. It was a day of thanksgiving for the harvest of corn, and the feast was held in the hope that the land would continue to yield as bountifully in the future.

The Thanksgiving Day is a day of feasting and thanksgiving, but it is also a day of remembrance. It is a day to think of the blessings that have been given to us by the Almighty God, and to give thanks for those blessings.

At the end of the meal, the Pilgrims gathered around the fireplace and gave thanks for the harvest and the blessings of the Almighty God. They were grateful for the food and for the opportunity to spend time with family and friends.
