large crowds in attendance.

At 4 o'clock on the evening of Saturday, December 1, the Magicians, a small organization represented, presented in the Winthrop auditorium a thoroughly entertaining skit of Shakespeare's plays. A large proportion of the roles were played by Winthrop students, and the presentation was an ideal one.

A few minutes early the audience was seated in the theatre. The three play representations included "The Tempest," "The Merchant of Venice," and "The Taming of the Shrew." The audience enjoyed the performances of the students in each one of the plays, and the programs were well received.

The first play was "The Tempest," and the presentation was very well received. The audience enjoyed the performances of the actors, and the production was a successful one.

The second play was "The Merchant of Venice," and the presentation was very well received. The audience enjoyed the performances of the actors, and the production was a successful one.

The third play was "The Taming of the Shrew," and the presentation was very well received. The audience enjoyed the performances of the actors, and the production was a successful one.

The audience was thoroughly entertained by the skit of Shakespeare's plays, and the presentations were well received by the students and the general public.
