WINTHROP MEETS FURMAN IN Debate

From the Johnsonian, January 11, 1926

The Freshman Class has one of the brightest prospects for their 21st annual debate. The topic for the debate with Furman University, a subject of much current interest, was announced as follows:

"Resolved, That the merging of banks and stores is a right and proper step in the development of our banking system and a step which has long felt at the time of any."

The topic provides a basis for a spirited discussion on the advantages and disadvantages of the proposed merger. The debate will take place on Tuesday, January 11, at 4:30 p.m. in the Assembly Room of the Johnsonian Building. The members of the debate will be announced on the day of the debate.

WELCOME, FURMAN

Rambling With the Featureists

WHAT IS A BACHELOR GIRL?

The JOHNSONIAN

The Educated Man

The Educated Man

Winston was delighted to welcome the Furman "featureists" to the front. Indeed, perhaps we should have met them as we did meet the students of the first term. They have indeed been on the scene for some time. The gathering of students in the front was an event of great importance. Winston found the students to be very enthusiastic and full of energy. They were eager to learn and willing to work hard.

WHAT IS A BACHELOR GIRL?

The JOHNSONIAN

The Educated Man

A bachelor girl is a woman who has not yet married. She is considered to be a young woman, usually in her twenties or early thirties. Bachelor girls are often portrayed as independent, free-spirited, and energetic. They are often associated with carefree lifestyles and a focus on personal fulfillment. Bachelor girls are often depicted as being less concerned with societal expectations and more focused on their individual desires and goals.

The World Moves On and Up

President Hoover Confirmed Major
By Walter M. Hensley
From the story of the last few months, it is clear that the United States is not prepared to accept a peace settlement that will not ensure持久 peace. The United States has always been a leader in the movement for peace and is now actively working towards this goal. The efforts of President Hoover and his administration have contributed significantly to the advancement of peace and justice in the world. We must continue to support their efforts and work towards a just and lasting peace.
