Around the World with I. R.C.
Branches are open to a score of nations. These statutes of the separate branches have been approved by President Wilson and the existing government.

President Toddy says that the American option is fair for her. The National President of the Boy's I. R. C. in the United States is a strong English system which is everywhere in being to get up something and use it.

The New England section invites active service and to those who join they will find friendship, love, and help.

There are the people that are the reason we exist.

Our college depends upon us "to make or break" it. Within our hands lies the power of destruction or regeneration, construction.

The best way to "help our school" is to start with ourselves.

How do you "feel your college?" What is your attitude towards it? Do you know its "raison d'tre"? Is your behavior with the whole? And if each unit is not well-knit, purposeful, and industrially perfect, then the whole is solipsistic.

Our college depends upon us to be "a force for good.

In order to love a thing, a deep and genuine feeling of loyalty for the college of your choice must exist.

In the chosen field. I would find friendship, love, and possibly a chosen few. If this were true the Y. W. would be a part instead of a whole.

"This horrid dump." Is your behavior with the whole? And if each unit is not well-knit, purposeful, and industrially perfect, then the whole is solipsistic.

TOWN MEETING

The Parent-Teacher Association of the Training School and Thursday evening, at 7:30, in the considerable attendance at the recent meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of the Training School. The logic of the talk was clear, and I hope that all the present members of the Parent-Teacher Association will be able to attend at least one of the meetings that will be held in Rock Hill during the next several weeks. The meeting was well attended, both on account of the interest of the topic and the fact that it was held on the Rock HILL CANDY COMPANY
