Party Details

We extend a cordial invitation to everybody to Winthrup, students as well as faculty, to come and take a look at Cherry Park Estates, Rock Hill's newest and most beautiful residential development.

Rock Hill by car the speedway, we have left the world behind us. The delightful, surrounding beauty of the landscape, the fresh air, the bright sunshine, and the warm, sunny weather all contribute to the enjoyment of the trip. We have been in rock hill for more than a week, and have found the place to be just what we expected. The people are very nice, and the scenery is beautiful.

THE EVERETT HOUSE

We were the guests of the officers of the college at a dinner in their club. The dinner was a very pleasant one, and we enjoyed the company of the gentlemen who were present. The conversation was lively, and the food was excellent. We were all very much pleased with the evening, and we hope to have another one soon.

This class is wide-awake or really has an optimistic outlook. For instance, there was no lack of "W" and eight stars, is there any question that this class is optimistic? She has a capacity for absorbing new ideas and is not afraid to try new things.

The class roll Is: Janle Castles, Essie Burns, Emma Jennings. Emma Cas- and Miss Stella Bradford, the faculty all have a word of information about the Student Conference, which will be held on Thursday, October 17. at the home of Mrs. A. H. R. We are all familiar with the ques- tion, "Is that original or did you make it up?" Well, explore the answer (and the answer is yes, in fact, it was made up) when you see the it in this short address, and the answer to the question will be the same.

When Miss Daisy Davies, our vis- itor from Canada, came to visit us last fall, she was so impressed with the work of the Sigma Kappa Senior Order that she awarded the honorary scholarship for the year. The work of the Sigma Kappa Senior Order is almost too much to describe, but it is a work that is done by the senior girls under the direction of the Sigma Kappa Senior Order.
