FEBRUARY 8

MRS. MARY L. AXLEY GIVES TALK ON AFRICA

TRIBES OF THE AFRICAN KALAHARI DESERT

The Johnsonian
The February 8th issue of The Johnsonian, a publication of the Student Body of Winthrop College, includes articles on summer school progress, special living arrangements for women students, and a talk by Miss Baylor on Africa. The magazine also discusses various events and topics related to the college community, including a performance of the opera "Rigoletto" and a speech by Mr. Rogers on professional work. The issue covers a range of subjects, from cultural events to intellectual discussions, reflecting the diverse interests of the college community.

MISS ADELAIDE BAYLOR IS HEAR AT CHAPEL

On Monday, February 9, Miss Adelaide Baylor, a noted speaker and orator, spoke at Winthrop College. Miss Baylor delivered a powerful address on the theme of "Education and Progress." Her speech was well-received by the audience, who were inspired by her words. The event was held in the chapel, and the audience was treated to a thought-provoking and inspiring talk.

FLUR SITUATION NOT ALARMING AT COLLEGE

The Rock Hill branch of the American Red Cross has received a number of donations in recent weeks, including a large shipment of food and clothing. The situation is not currently alarming, and the Red Cross is well-equipped to handle any future needs. The college community is encouraged to continue supporting the Red Cross and other relief organizations during these challenging times.

WILL GIVE SORREL CONCERT-tomorrow night at 8:30 in the chapel.
