WINDSOR SPRING HOLIDAYS DAYS MARCH 23-30
It water sports can spring from the cooling of the ice and the warmth of the sun, then a trip to the lakes and rivers must have an appeal for all groups of students. The games of "Squalls"
and "Bum Moll" will be played at the Jacksonville Country Club at 10:30 p.m.
Tuesday, March 30.

TENNIS GAMES
Winthrop—38
Piedmont—47
Realizing that every team was a realistic one, and that the opposition was not to be doubted, Spruill and Todd became determined to hold the victory. The whistle blew for the game to end; the score was 29 in favor of the Seniors—but the Juniors did not give up. "Slatterns—That's the word, and that's the way to get ahead of your rivals." Such a game was played, and the Juniors shouted in triumph. The game was a hard fight from beginning to end; a foul had Just been made;
a whistle had blown; the29 had been made;
the Garnet and Gray line-up was all present. The game was a decided advantage for the Juniors, and the victory—

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper of Orange-

The Johnsonian is the official publication of the student body of Windsor College. The text includes announcements, articles, and notices from the college community. The content covers various topics such as sports, literary and artistic events, and social gatherings. The tone of the text is formal and informative, typical of a college newspaper from the 1920s. The layout is simple, with short paragraphs and a clear structure, reflecting the traditional layout of newspapers from that era.
YOUR CLOTHES AND YOU

You have to stop this. I mean you. Look, focus your personality...your personality reiect your ideas and beliefs. One bristly whisker makes it possible to stay immaculate. But it can also give an impression of nervousness.

ATTEND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CONFERENCE

Winthrop College annual meeting of the Student's Conference of the National Conference for the Promotion of International Relations was held in the Hotel Wright on February 27th and 28th. The annual meeting was held to discuss various issues related to international relations.

The meeting was attended by representatives from various institutions, including the University of Pennsylvania, the American University, and the University of Chicago. The discussions centered around the current political climate, the role of international organizations, and the importance of diplomacy in maintaining peace.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks to the host institution, Winthrop College, for providing a platform for the exchange of ideas and perspectives.
The Saturday Evening Post, following the lead of the other two established periodicals, issued a new government in Paris.

Three of the nine women members of the French legislature were voted in on March 6. They are Rosine Marie, Pauline Dejean, and Catherine Leguy. Mrs. Leguy is the only one who has not yet taken her seat.

The council of securities of the United States, under the leadership of the chairman, accorded a special promotion to the members.

There are 300,000 radio receivers being shipped annually in America, an increase of more than one hundred per cent over the corresponding period of last year.

The national economics councils and government machinery are operating under the new plan of Mr. Smith, who predicts that prohibition will be one of the most important features of the coming session.

Jewel Laugston's brother visited her in New York, where she is recovering nicely. It is hoped that he will be able to return to his home soon.

Brown reviewed the chief phases of the war in Europe, and flattering comments are credits to the Palmetto Players and to the University. The "Baby Cyclone" was produced at the Grand Opera House.

At the close of the season, the gardens were opened to the public, and the audience and the many favorable comments prove that the work has been a success.

Drayton is one of the lineal proprietors of Middleton Place. His name of Drayton and the loveliness of his handiwork are inseparable from the history of the place.

The cenotaph of his master's doings, Is evidently the bustle and hurry of such an event.

Drayton's oldest son was present at the chapel service to recognize the opening of the season.

The "Big Sister" is going to Charleston In the fall, and it is expected that she will be ready for the opening of the season.

Drayton's daughter, Mrs. J. J. Pringle, whose parents were both prominent gardeners, has been instrumental in developing the garden which has since been developed by the landlord and affectionate care. These are the early spring flowers which were still coordinating beautifully, the four symbols stand for:

I. The "Big Sister" was given a significant review of the more important achievements of the garden season.
