

Winthrop University Archives
Preliminary Descriptive Inventory

Unit: Home Economics, School of
Sub-Group: Department of Home Demonstration
Series: Short Courses Records

Record Group no: W423.4
Sub-group no: 1A
Series no: 4

Description of series and its contents:

The short course program, offering instruction in various aspects of home economics, was adopted as a permanent facet of the Home Demonstration Department in 1914. These records consist of a 1915 outline for the management of state and county short courses, lists of courses, aims and objectives, instruction methods, and the year's goals/ One can find related information by searching the summer school records (W423.7). The records are in chronological order.

Box (es)	Folder(s)	Contents	Year(s)
1	1	Records Relating to Home Demonstration Short Courses	June 28, 1914, 1915, 1918, 1925-1926, 1934-1935
1	2	Records Relating to Home Demonstration Short Courses	nd
1	3	Records Relating to Home Demonstration Short Courses (Certificates)	1942, 1944
1	4	Daily Log: State Short Course News	1937