Description of series and its contents:

This series consists of the various records produced by and for the South Carolina Humanities Resource Center. The South Carolina Humanities Resource Center was created around 1984 through the South Carolina Committee for the Humanities (South Carolina Humanities) and was housed at Winthrop College in the Library. The Center operated as a repository for the documentaries, studies, finding aids, recordings, histories informational booklets, etc. which grant recipients were required to produce upon completion of their projects. The Center and its collection was later moved to the Columbia sometime in the early 1990s.
