Chester delegation to hold meeting Thursday

Senator A. E. Brown and Rep. S. W. Talman, who are scheduled to hold their meetings in Chester Thursday morning, were here Tuesday in the course of their State-wide campaign.

At a meeting held by the Chester柴 delegation, a vote of interest was adjourned to a regular meeting. A. E. Brown, Norton, the one member of the delegation, took part in the meeting, which was held at his office. Mr. Brown said the delegation had been formed to hold a meeting in Chester Thursday morning, which was to be attended by the State highway commissioner, who was to hold a regular meeting in the city on Monday.

FOR THE GENTLEMAN OF THE SOUTH
"King of Them All"

It was midnight. November 4, 1901. In Durham, N.C.

It was midnight, cold and dark. The calendar told the date—Monday, November 4th, 1901. They told me I opened my eyes and blinked in the glare of the big electric lights. Around me were men in spotless white clothing talking in low tones.

"Jim," one said, "we have been watching for this little fellow for a long while and now he's here."

Jim picked me up, looked me over, struck a match and took a long, deep puff. Then he took another.

"Gentlemen," he said, "He is perfect. Quality does tell. You can't fail to recognize good blood. His mother was a Virginian, his father an aristocrat of the Carolinas. He comes from the very best stock—the very sweetest, ripest, mellowest Virginia and Carolina tobacco, and we will raise him right. One of the whitest, cleanest, healthiest homes on earth."

Even then I was glad all over to hear his words. It is a great thing to have real breeding behind you, to know who-yes, folks are. It starts a fellow right.

We Folks of the South KNOW good blood.

"It's the South's own KNOW good tobacco."

That is why I just had to have some of friends down South here. I want you, Mr. Reader, for one of my friends, and it means a whole lot when I say—

I am guaranteed by the Manufacturer.

Buy me. If you don't like me, you can return me to your dealer and get your money back. I have said it. A Southern gentleman is known the world over for his word, and I have given you mine.
