(Oct. 22, 1946)

The area workshop of the South Carolina Scholastic Press association, which had been tentatively scheduled for Friday in Charleston, has been cancelled, it was announced today by Reid H. Montgomery, Rock Hill, director.

School publication staff members on the two preceding Fridays had met for clinics at Greenville and West Columbia, but insurmountable difficulties forced the cancellation of the meeting in Charleston.

The annual convention of the high school press organization this year is scheduled to be in Columbia in April. There were 70 member publications in the group last year.

Memberships from Charleston so far this year include:

The Cub, Rivers junior high, Harriet Koalow, editor; The Clarion, Memminger high school, Kitty Granatos, editor; The Blue Devil, North Charleston high school; Blue and Gold, St. Andrews Parish high school, Jackie Morton, editor.
