Proposal for Inclusion Across The Life Span Conference

Christina Hammond Dempsey, M.Ed.
Dutchman Creek Middle School. Rock Hill SC

“Stuck in the Middle” : Positives and concerns that resulted from a year of full inclusion/co-teaching in sixth grade and how we changed our service delivery model to be sure every child’s needs are met. This presentation will also include strategies for middle level teachers for academics, technology (apps that may be helpful), behavior and motivation for students with mild to moderate disabilities.
