The several men in charge of the Better Sire campaign in Chester county held their first meeting yesterday morning at the headquarters in the News last night, and reported that the campaign is getting off to an excellent start and that the attendance yesterday was good and that much interest was taken in the campaign.

The Chester county campaign will be watched with interest through out the entire county since ours is the second county in the South to be favored with such a campaign.

Secretary E. L. Adolph of the Chester Chamber of Commerce, is expecting secretaries of commercial organizations of the State to visit Chester Thursday for the purpose of getting first hand information with regard to the Better Sire campaign now going on in the county. The results shown here will be taken back by the secretaries with the view of getting similar campaigns in their respective communities. If the campaign goes over big in Chester County it will mean a wonderful advertisement for the State.

The merchants and other business men of Chester are urged to take an active part in the campaign and are requested to attend the meetings being held this week.

Mr. Robinson will still retain his position in the company and will probably return to the store when he regains his health. Mr. W. S. Neely, who has been connected with the business for several years and who also owns stock in the company, has been appointed his successor and has assumed his duties.

Mr. Robinson has many friends throughout the county who hope for him a speedy recovery.

Grady Timms, fifteen year old boy of the Hickory Ridge section of Fairfield county, accidentally shot and killed his brother, Sable Timms, aged 13, Sunday evening.

The accident was caused by the discharge of a shotgun which was lying on a table, he was alone, the shot entered the boy's brain killing him instantly. The boy was the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Timms and was a student at Mount Zion Institute.

Contractor Confirms Suicide.

Mr. Harry B. Patton, Gastonia contractor who had the contract for remodeling the Strozes building in Chester formerly occupied by The S. M. Jones Company, committed suicide yesterday morning at his home by shooting himself through the head.

Mrs. Patton had taken their two children to school and when she returned about eight-thirty o'clock she found Mr. Patton in the bath room. She thought the death was instantaneous. He left a note to his wife and each of the children, the contents of which were not made public.

Financial obligations were thought to have been the cause of the rash act. Mr. Patton was a native of Georgia and had been living in Gastonia for the past ten years. He was about forty years of age.

He was well known in Chester, having been here a number of times recently and has figured on several building projects in Chester during the past few months.

NOTICE OF FINAL RETURN.

On Tuesday, February 24th, 1925, I will make my final and Final Return to Honorable A. W. Wise, Probate Judge at Chester, S. C., as Administrator of the estate of T. Gaston McFadden, deceased, and will then and there apply for Letters Dismissory.

T. L. McFADDEN, Administrator.

Chester, S. C., Jan. 22nd, 1925 27-3-10-11

Three prisoners of the Calhoun county Jail knocked the sheriff unconscious yesterday and looked him up in the county jail, while they made their escape.

The sheriff had gone into the jail to attend to the wants of the prisoners when they knocked him in the head.

Zero weather was reported in Chicago, Illinois, last night. The weather bureau reports the wave moving outward and it is predicted that the wave should reach the east today.

Fire yesterday morning destroyed one-fourth of the business district of Troy, North Carolina. The loss is estimated at one hundred thousand dollars, with very little insurance.

Representative A. G. Westbrook, of Chester county, introduced a resolution in the General Assembly, to allow the automobile owners of South Carolina thirty days additional time to pay taxes to secure the automobile license tags.

The following marriage licenses were issued at the Judge of Probate's office during the past few days: Mr. Roy Swann Love and Miss Mattie Belle Franklin both of Chester; Mr. Robert Bigam and Miss Montie Brooks both of Lenoir; Mr. Harry W. Durrell and Miss Vera Rappley both of Charlotte; Mr. C. N. Mills of Charlotte and Miss Emma M. Plyter of Concord.

Chester people will learn with regret that Mr. P. L. Adolph has resigned as secretary of the Chester Chamber of Commerce, and has accepted a similar position at Rock Hill, North Carolina.

Mr. Adolph has been in Chester only a short while but has made many friends throughout the county and had rendered interest in the Chamber of Commerce. The position at Hickory will be in the native of a promotion for Mr. Adolph.

NOTES FROM EDMOOR.

Edmoor, Jan. 22.—We are having beautiful sunny days and are all glad the farmers can get out and do some work on their farms. They can fix the pasture fence and bed the stables, while it is too wet to plow.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Willis returned today from a week's visit to New York City.

Miss Alva May Westerlund recently visited her sister, Miss Maude Westerlund, who teaches at Grover, N. C.

Miss Augusta Orr will spend this week-end with Mr. Gilbert Haskin, of Lenoir.

Mrs. J. L. McDonald was a business visitor to Chester last Friday.

We are glad to say Mrs. Mattie Walker is able to go out again after being confined to her room for a few days with a severe cold.

The annual winter supper at W. C. Nunnery's store was very much enjoyed.

Mrs. Rosa G. Strait, of Rock Hill, spent a few days last week with Dr. and Mrs. Gaston at Edmoor. Mrs. Strait had been over to see her uncle, Porter Gaston, who has been sick for some time.

Mrs. J. L. McDonald and little son, Joseph, were Rock Hill visitors last Saturday.

Mrs. L. C. Murphy and children spent last Thursday afternoon with Mrs. J. L. McDonald and children.

We are glad to know Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mitchell's little baby girl is improving, after a severe spell of bronchial pneumonia.

Frank Mitchell is having his dwelling place remodeled. He will have another story added.

Notice Of Drawing Grand Jurors. In compliance with an Act of the General Assembly of the State of South Carolina approved the 7th day of February, A. D. 1902, we the Jury Commissioners of Chester County, in the State of South Carolina, do hereby give notice that on Wednesday, February 18th, 1925, at 10:00 o'clock A. M., in the Court of the Clerk of Court of Chester County, S. C., we will draw the following jurors, to-wit: Twelve (12) Grand Jurors to serve during year 1925.

Purebred cattle figure out 40 per cent more efficient in production than scrubs.

To anybody that will overlook me with old iron. I buy old iron at 25c per 100 lbs. old stoves, plow points, all kinds of machinery pieces. All the large pieces must be broken up, so as not to be over 200 pounds. I buy carboys of soda water for $7.00 per gross ton, f. o. b. in the car. I do not buy railroad iron. I buy all kinds of brass, copper, and aluminum, and pay big prices. Also automobile radiators, storage batteries, etc. Also buy fur, skins, mink, muskrat, opossum, etc. for top prices. Weigh your iron at D. B. Co's, on Center street, and bring same to S. L. depot and get your money. I will be here this week and next week. All iron must be free of wood and tin.

Has Reared Big Family.

Veteran Has 12 Children. 79 Grandchildren And 72 Great-Grandchildren.

Charlottesville, Va., Jan. 23.—Among the sturdy mountain folks of western Albemarle county there is a man who has an interesting personal history and a wide family connection. The man is hale and hearty at the advanced age of nearly 66 years, most of which he has lived in the immediate vicinity of his present residence.

This man is John N. James, who for many years has resided in Sugar Hollow, in the Blue Ridge mountains. He was born July 31, 1839, at Spartanburg, S. C. On April 17, 1861, he volunteered for service in the Confederate Army and was assigned to Co. J, Fifth Regiment of South Carolina. Mr. James served throughout the period of the war until April 6, 1865, when he was captured by the enemy just three days before the close of the conflict, and released near Newport News.

While in service in a campaign in the Shenandoah Valley, Mr. James was detailed to drive some cattle across the Blue Ridge mountains to what is now Newport News. In passing through the mountain section of Albemarle county he met Miss Frances Viss, whom he married February 28, 1865, and following the war he located on the headwaters of Mooreman's River.

Of this union twelve children were reared and well provided for, together with a grandchild whose mother died during her infancy. There are seven sons—William, Lemuel, John, James, George, Jesse and Genie, and five daughters—Kate, Emily, Katie, Maggie and Cornelia.

Other descendants of Mr. James were ninety grandchildren, seventy-nine of whom are living. An unusual feature in the life of the old gentleman is that he enjoys the rather remarkable distinction of being great-grandfather to seventy-two children.

Going the Route.

A Southern land man was returning home late one night when he was startled to see, in the bright moonlight, a diaphanous negro come out at top speed along the road.

"Here, stop a minute, what's the trouble?" he demanded. "You seem mighty scared."

"Ah is scared," replied the colored one, ducking his head somewhat. "Ah seed a ghos' down to de graveyard."

"But you're running toward the graveyard, instead of away from it."

"Ah knows dat, ruh, but de graveyard Ah is runnin' from am fo' cooties back."—Exchange.

Take Care of Them

The Better Sire Campaign being on in Chester county brings to mind the fact that many people do not take the proper care of their cattle.

You cannot expect a cow to be a good producer unless she is well housed. Now would be a good time to let us sell you the lumber for a good substantial cow barn. Treat the cow well and she will return the treatment many fold.

Going the Route.

A Southern land man was returning home late one night when he was startled to see, in the bright moonlight, a diaphanous negro come out at top speed along the road.

"Here, stop a minute, what's the trouble?" he demanded. "You seem mighty scared."

"Ah is scared," replied the colored one, ducking his head somewhat. "Ah seed a ghos' down to de graveyard."

"But you're running toward the graveyard, instead of away from it."

"Ah knows dat, ruh, but de graveyard Ah is runnin' from am fo' cooties back."—Exchange.
