For the Associate Reformed Presbyterians—A Dedication of Their Church.

Last Saturday was the day appointed by Rev. E. C. McDonald, of Winnsboro, the presbytery for the laying of the first stone of the Associate Reformed church. Services were held in the old Methodist church, and it is unnecessary to say that a very large congregation gathered together and do honor to the occasion.

Service was performed by Rev. D. N. McLain, and Rev. W. D. Knox. We believe that the first portion of this county has been well represented, and quite a number of people from the surrounding country were present and added their strength and prayers to the services.

The exercises were conducted with a benediction and prayer, Rev. C. H. Culp, of Rock Hill, the prayer leader. After the prayer, the building committee gave an account of the progress made, and the work of the building committee was presented to the congregation. The Rev. H. C. Buchholz read the blessed 6th chapter of Chronicles, in which the congregation has been led in worship.

A New Map.
Mr. T. C. Matthews is here for the purpose of making a map of the city. He is the best map maker in the State, and his map will show that the city is much larger than it has been represented. He has no doubt that this will lead to a better understanding of the city and its rate in our city.

Ruby Births and Right.

One day I saw a little sparrow flying around and enjoying his liberty in his back yard. I watched him for some time, and he was being bailed up by his mother. He was not bad at all and behaved himself very well. He made good his escape and is now enjoying the freedom of the air.

WILLY COX.

From Go to Bell Cord.

Capt. W. F. Sproule, of the Southern Railway, arrived in Chester Saturday night, and called on the office reporter, under the administration of G. S. Brice, Esq., and Mr. W. H. Goodwin. After a pleasant conversation with the railroad began 15 years ago. He was laid aside by temporary indisposition in the year 1894. For the last five years he has monotonous life, and has been on every Sunday. He is as busy as a beaver, and if years should ever be an obstacle in the consummation of plans, he could find time for something more.
