FRIDAY, MARCH 9

The many people who have taken it for granted that the war should end before the end of the month, that we should be back to normal, that wages should remain high, that business will improve, are in for a rude awakening. The general expectation of those who have been here, and those who have not, is that the war will end by the end of the month. It is quite possible that this may be true, but it is by no means certain.

I'm mighty glad I was born a real South-erner. Just suppose I had been an Eskimo, or an Indian, or something with rings in my nose and ears!

Yes, sir—I am good and proud of my Southern birth. My mother is from Virginia and my father is from the Carolinas. I was born and raised down here among you all.

You Folks of the South KNOW good blood! You Folks of the South KNOW good tobacco!

I want you all for my friends—every one of you. Give me a chance—see how I make good. And don't forget—

I am guaranteed by

The American trustee.

If you don't like me return me to your dealer and get your money back. I have said it. A Southern gentleman is known the world over for keeping his word, and I have given you mine.
