Nature made it, and made it right, — the just-right cooking-fat for all purposes, — the economical substitute for butter, there's no substitute for hog-fat in it. It's the pride of the South, — her leading agricultural contribution to international food-purity.

Former Days Better than These.

There was a time when public sentiment harmonized most beautifully in our littleclty, when all questions of local Interest were settled quietly, when all citizens seemed to shove the Interests of the town forward together, as one, as it were, but we fear that that time is no more.—Rock Hill Herald.
