Winthrop University now offers one-click access to the Homeland Security Digital Library \(HSDL\). The HSDL is the nation's most authoritative tool for research in the field of homeland security policy and strategy. The U.S. Department of Homeland Security, Office of Grants & Training is providing the HSDL to homeland security officials, researchers, educators and students in an effort to further advance national research and policy development.

To access the library, simply type www.hsdl.org into your internet browser window, and you'll be automatically logged into this useful tool.

If you have questions, feedback, or suggestions for the HSDL email hsdl@nps.edu or call (831) 656-2005. Please go to www.chds.us for information on other educational programs sponsored by DHS and the Naval Postgraduate School's Center for Homeland Defense and Security.
