S. C. FRIDAY, MARCH 9, 1917

Mr. W. J. Mullinax of King's Creek, No. 1, left Saturday morning for Sparta, where he will find treatment at the Steedly hospital for a kidney affection.

Mr. J. B. Robinson, of Clover, several years pension commissioner of York county, has resigned, the resignation to take effect as soon as his successor may be appointed. Mr. Robinson has been giving faithful and efficient service in the position but because of the condition of his health, feels that he is hardly equal to the work.

Rev. Frank H. Wardlaw of Charlotte, has accepted a call to the pastorate of Bethesda church which was recently extended to him by that congregation. Rev. Mr. Wardlaw will assume the duties of his new pastorate April 1, and will move his family to the Bethesda manse within the next few weeks.

Information from Mr. Fred McGill of Hickory Grove, principal of the Cartersville school, who was seriously cut by two men a few days ago, is that he is getting along nicely and is now considered to be out of danger. Prof. McGill is still in a hospital in Florence, and will likely be there for some time.

Citizens of Sharon have contributed a substantial sum to be used in improving the grounds of the Sharon school and the work has been in progress during the past several days. A baseball diamond and a basketball court will be provided and considerable lawn grass will be sown.

R. B. Plexico, for the past several months driver and caretaker for the Yorkville fire department has tendered his resignation to the town council, the same to become effective March 31. Mr. Plexico intends to go to Virginia where he has secured a position with a large racing stable.

A prominent York county resident who has a brother in the United States navy with a squadron now located at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, said yesterday that he has recently received a letter from his brother, in which he said that the ship on which he was located had orders to shoot every German submarine on sight. The commander of the ship, he said, had been in possession of these orders for three weeks. Up to last week, when the letter was written, no submarines had been sighted. The sailor went on to say in his letter that so far as the United States navy was concerned, it already practically considered itself at war with Germany.

RADIO TO BERNSTORFF ON EXPOSURE - PLOT

Germany Aids Him to Tall How - Called Crown Diplomatic Blunder

London, March 5—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Amsterdam says:

"According to a Frankfort telegram received here, the German Government has sent a wireless dispatch to Count von Bernstorff, former German Ambassador to the United States, who is at sea returning to Germany, asking him to explain how the German note with regard to bringing Mexico and Japan into war with the United States was divulged.

"A special courier has been dispatched to meet Count von Bernstorff on his arrival and warn him against granting any newspaper interviews on the situation." The correspondent adds that the Socialist newspapers in Munich, Leipzig, and Magdeburg criticise the note to Mexico as the crowning diplomatic blunder of Germany.

Raleigh, N. C. March 6—A legislative investigating committee failed to develop who was responsible for the clause which placed in an amendment to North Carolina's State Primary law passed last week, repealed the primary law and was not discovered until the amendment was handled for final disposition in the office of the secretary of state, yesterday. Announcement of the discovery of the "joker" created one of the greatest sensations in legislative circles in recent years and the assembly last night repealed the measure and took steps to institute an investigation.

The investigation today indicated that an entirely new bill had been substituted for the amendment after the measure had passed both houses, it was said. The "joker" was not in the bill when it went through committee and was acted on by the senate.

FACTS ABOUT COUNTY BONDS

An Open Letter to Taxpayers of Chester County

It is only too likely that you cannot get anything for nothing, but the fact is that there is such a thing as a public bond. In the case of the Confederate bonds, the government, in order to raise the money to pay for the war, issued bonds, which, it was explained, would bear interest at 6 per cent. and would mature in 1975, or 100 years from the date of issue. These bonds were sold at a discount, and the purchaser was able to get the money in advance by paying a certain amount of money, plus interest, on the bond, and then, at the maturity date, he was entitled to receive the face value of the bond, plus all accumulated interest. The Confederate government, it is true, never paid the interest on these bonds, nor did it ever pay the principal. But the fact remains that they were bonds, and they were issued in order to raise money for a public purpose, and it is only fair to say that the government, in issuing them, did its best to pay the interest and the principal.

The bond market, it is true, has its ups and downs, and it is not unusual for the prices of bonds to fluctuate. But it is also true that the bond market is not subject to the same fluctuations as the stock market, and that the prices of bonds are generally more stable. Moreover, the bond market is not subject to the same risks as the stock market, and that the prices of bonds are generally more stable. Moreover, the bond market is not subject to the same risks as the stock market, and that the prices of bonds are generally more stable.

Without equal in today, just before the War, was a man named Mr. J. W. Johnson, being a friend of the writer of these pages, who was once reported to have said: "He had an awful burning in his stomach." Two years later, the same man was reported to have said: "He has a fine appetite and feels just as well when I began taking Tanlac."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is a tonic, digestive, and purifying article, which when administered regularly, gives me back my health and strength. I have a fine appetite and
