FRIDAY, MARCH 14.

... This paper has enlisted with the government in the cause of America for the period of the war ...

An employment agency in one of the largest cities in Texas states that out of 1,000 applicants for employment but one asked for a job on a farm. Of course, everyone knows the reason for this, and it is not for a job on the farm is because a farm job does not pay a remunerative salary, although it is a fact that it appears to us that a man should be able to receive satisfaction from his labor on a farm as he does in a factory mill or a machine shop, but he should simply because the price of farm products is so low that the owner of the farm cannot afford to pay high wages for labor. It takes brain as well as brawn to farm scientifically and farm wages ought to be on a par with those of other occupations and more honest and honest will increase the value of farm labor.

THE EDUCATION OF AMERICA

Their energies and resources mainly devoted to education and the matters of business and land and opportunity, for more than a hundred years most Americans took small interest in the rest of the world. The traditional policy of noninterference in European affairs was accompanied by want of curiosity and information about them. We were sufficient unto ourselves, self-reliant, with a gigantic field of development and endeavor at home. What had we to do with abroad?

The Spanish-American war took us out of our isolation first and for a season planted us in the Caribbean and the Pacific. We accepted the new responsibilities grudgingly and grudgingly, and the Philippines, immense as their potentialities are, we have long regarded as a bore, a burden, something to be gotten rid of, set on its way and get out of. Mr. Hay's policy of the open door stirred us a languid and sentimental feeling. We had grown rich and were destined to be much richer. Our industries required foreign markets, but we couldn't think of foreign trade in large terms or see that our capital and credit should be used and protected in the East. The Pacific scarcely existed for us. It would be incorrect to say that any considerable number of the American people seriously understood or cared for our trade relations with China or for our more in the open door than a policy of fair play.

We were mostly prosperous, provincial, self-satisfied, willing to let the rest of mankind go hang when the Great War began to wake us up, enlarge our geography and our mental outlook, teach us slowly but with absolute conviction, that the world is one, a machine, in a time of swift intercommunication and international reaching for trade, and that feels in every part, the break in any part. We saw how little Italian Spain, whose capital nineteenth century didn't know was the power of the kindling Europe. Asia, America into war. After we got into the war, especially, our foreign education was rapid. We began to see that freedom, justice, democracy, peace, are not the concern of one country, but of all countries. In this hour there has been a remarkable widening of our intellectual perception. It will be the reconstruction of Europe, Asia, Africa will be part of our work. We agree the final blow to the old, creaking, cruel system. The fortune of the new, might always vitally concern us. With the nations by whose side we fought our friendship must be closer. The hermit has a proud place at the table of the nations. He cannot return to his solitude. Henceforth, by reason of the heart and the pocketbook, we shall be ever and ever the students of foreign affairs. Selected.

They Have Obedience to Assimilate. ... of this German opera enterprise to get New York that a few Americans of German birth and a large number of German descent have just been fighting well, bravely, and loyalty to the American Army. We all know that we because we know it the Teutonic element in our population has been the object of no racial animosities or discriminations in or out of the military service, and it has been treated with a leniency and a kindness which in too many instances were ill repaid.

It was most tactless and unwise to reveal us that there are German-Americans, and Germans in America. The former are not "debarred" from finding recreation in ordinary American theatres, and if the members of the latter class are to be debarred it is simply because they have determined to keep themselves apart from their neighbors—to remain aliens and potential enemies.

Therein lies the offensiveness of the German opera scheme and the justification for condemning it. More than hundreds of thousands of real Americans have enjoyed those operas in the past, but there is no likelihood that they will do so again until the unpatriotic Germans show, at least the beginning of a realization of what a frightful crime Germany committed in 1914, of the hideous atrocities that followed the crime, and of her need to be humble instead of arrogant, and respectful of the world's opinion instead of suffering to it—New York Times.

GALLOWAY ASKED TO GIVE UP POST

His Not Yet Sent Resignation—Mr. Galloway, Member, May Retire as Result of Civil Service Commission Reorganization.

Washington, March 12. President Wilson's reorganization of the civil service commission together with the fact that he asked for the resignation of two members, Harry W. Crossen and Charles M. Galloway, became known today with the announcement of the White House of the resignation of Mr. Crossen.

One valued in the commission already existed, John A. McIlhenny having resigned several weeks ago to accept a position in Haiti, but as Mr. Galloway's resignation has not yet been received at the White House the appointment of the third member was not announced.

The letters asking for the resignations of Mr. Crossen, Galloway and Crossen were dispatched just before the president left on his return trip to France and were said to have contained no reasons for the request. Mr. Galloway would make no statement tonight but said he might have something to say tomorrow.

Friends of the commissioner in conference communicated with the president by wireless in an effort to have Mr. Galloway withdraw his demand for Mr. Galloway's retirement, but it was said at the White House that an entirely new commission would be appointed. No explanation of the president's decision to reorganize the commission was given.

Mr. Crossen was a Democratic member of the house of representatives from 1909 to 1917. His home is in Frankfort, Ky.

Mr. Galloway has been connected with the civil service commission since 1892.

Charles M. Galloway is a South Carolina man and until his appointment as secretary to Senator E. D. Smith, was on the staff of the State. After several years as Senator Smith's secretary he was nominated as one of the Democratic members of the civil service commission.

STOMACH TROUBLE

Mr. Nathan H. H. of Nancy, Ky., says: "For quite a long while I suffered with stomach trouble. I was having pains and a heavy feeling after my meals a most disagreeable taste in my mouth. If I ate anything with buttermilk or grease, I could spit it out. I began to have regular headache. I had used pills and tablets, but at a glass of wine, I would be constipated. If I just ate a little bit of my stomach all up. I found they were no good at all for my trouble. I heard of your medicine."

THE FORD'S

recommended very highly, so began to use it. It cured me. I keep it in the house all the time. It is the best liver medicine made. I do not have a sick headache or stomach trouble any more." Black-Draught acts on the liver and helps it to do its important work of throwing out waste materials and poisons from the system. This medicine should be in every household for use in time of need. Get a package today. If you feel sluggish, take a dose tonight. You will feel fresh tomorrow. Price 25c a package. All druggists.

SIXTEEN FIELDS WILL BE RETAINED

Three Kept Also For Balloons.

Washington, March 12.—Decision of the war department to maintain 16 flying fields and three balloon fields as a part of the permanent military establishment was announced today by Acting Secretary Crowell. The department also has practically decided, Mr. Crowell said, to store for possible future use, the hundreds of elementary and advanced training planes used during the war.

Secretary Crowell said, department experts do not believe the training machines will deteriorate, if carefully stored, even after a period of years, nor do they believe that any decided improvement will be made in these types which would necessitate their being discarded. The flying and balloon fields to be retained have not yet been selected, but it was explained that the actual training of aviators for the army would be held at only two fields, the other plants being held intact as a reserve. Sites now leased by the government will be purchased and equipment on hand retained.

The fields have not been definitely decided upon but the assistant secretary said two would be near Newport News, three on the Pacific coast, one near New York, three in Texas, two in Florida, one in Mississippi, one of the Great Lakes and one each in Georgia and Oklahoma.

The 16 flying fields probably will be General Field, Fla. Fields which are to be retained and which are now leased will be purchased by the government. Mr. Crowell said. Actual installation of the fields will be completed by the end of the year.

CHANDLER SIX $1795

This is the Chandler Motor Famous for Its Excellence

CHANDLER owners, and men generally who know automobiles, talk about the Chandler motor for its marvelous performance and endurance.

It is exclusively the Chandler motor, of Chandler design and Chandler manufacture in Chandler shops. The only automobile hood you can find it under is the Chandler hood. It is not a stock motor. No other car has it.

And this is the greatest of six-cylinder motors. The Chandler motor, with refinements and improvements from time to time but without radical change at any time, is now in its sixth year.

Lift the hood of a Chandler car and see that motor. Even from the outside you know it is good. Manufacturers wouldn't build and mount a motor with such care if it weren't an extraordinary motor inside.

Cylinders cast in three, valves in the side, all working parts easily accessible. Heavy, perfectly-balanced crank shaft, running in unusually large bearings.

Chain drive for crank shaft, cam shaft and magneto shaft, three chains running silently in constant spray of oil. Bosch Magneto for sure ignition. Mounted on solid cast aluminum base.

Chandler motor and chassis design are typical of the highest priced construction, yet Chandler is moderately priced. It offers greater value than other cars give you for hundreds more. You can absolutely prove this to your own satisfaction if you will come and study the Chandler car.

Seven-Passenger Touring Car, $1795. Four-Passenger Dispatch Car, $1475. Four-Passenger Roadster, $1295. Convertible Sedan, $2495. Convertible Coupe, $2395. Limousine, $3095. All prices f.o.b. Cleveland.

Diamond SQUEEGEE TREAD Tires

You Wouldn't Hike In Dress Shoes

Suppose, for example, you had a lot of walking to do, day after day.

—would you wear flimsy-soled dress shoes?

Of course not—for you'd see to it that your shoes were the tough-soled, substantial, serviceable sort.

The same holds with the "shoes" for your automobile.

You want your car to keep going on one set of tires as long as possible.

Diamond SQUEEGEE TREAD Tires

—the tires with the red sidewalls,

—are the tough-treaded, substantial, serviceable tires that will give you the long mileage you have hoped for,

—plus a little more for good measure.

If you want a tire that will make you come back, for more, buy one DIAMOND.

The Perfected Valve-in-the-Head Motor

NASH SIX!

THE SENSATION OF THE AUTOMOBILE WORLD

Built and designed by the man who designed two the world's best known and most successful automobiles—a car with every refinement, and, plus those sterling qualities in his early models which have made his name rank at the top in the automobile business.

No higher in price than many of the popular makes, but ahead of them all in motor, finish, riding qualities and the various features that you want in your car. Perfected valve-in-head motor, and practically vibrationless engine are two of the most outstanding features of the NASH that no competitor can approach.

The Nash Six is comfortable for both driver and passengers—like an aeroplane—you don't realize you are riding on the ground.

This car drives easily. Women who drive will like the Nash Six because of this feature. All controls are so placed that the hands and feet fall naturally into driving position.

Why Take Calomel?

Dr. Thacher's Liver & Blood Syrup will do all that calomel will do and without the "after-effects."

Years ago, when people were bilious when the liver got busy and failed to do its work on the stomach, was out of condition, calomel was the standby. By and by the use of calomel found that the "after-effects" of taking the drug were as bad as the trouble it was intended to cure.

Dr. Thacher, in seeking a medicine to take the place of calomel—one that would do all the good that calomel effects without the "after-effects," found Dr. Thacher's Liver & Blood Syrup. This was in 1880, and each year since has added to the confidence of those who have used it.

Miss Bessie Brewer, of Chattanooga, Tenn., tried calomel. She was suffering with a very serious cold and grippe and had no appetite whatever. After the calomel failed she tried Dr. Thacher's Liver & Blood Syrup. She felt better after taking three doses and she soon got entirely well. "I think Dr. Thacher's Liver & Blood Syrup is a wonderful medicine," she said, "and I am very thankful I tried it."

For nearly three-quarters of a century this sterling preparation has been a "gold standard" in thousands of homes as a treatment for indigestion, dyspepsia, flatulence and other stomach and liver ailments. It is a powerful tonic and blood purifier and can be used with the utmost confidence.

Write Dr. Thacher Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for a copy of "Thacher's Family Doctor," a book giving other symptoms and treatment of all common diseases.

Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup is for sale by druggists in medicines every where.
