Large Flaming Visitor Seen Sailing Over Dillon

Lighted the Country From Fayetteville Sunday Night.

A strange visitor from an unknown world flashed over Dillon early Sunday night and disappeared somewhere in the vicinity of Lake View. It was about 9 o'clock when pedestrians were startled by a flash high in the heavens that lighted the countryside for many miles. Looking up they saw a white streak across the vault of the heavens—the wake of a huge meteorite that came out of the west with the speed of lightning and bolted itself somewhere near Lake View.

In the brief streak that cut the ether like a flaming sword the hands of a mighty giant were seen all the colors of the rainbow. It was a beautiful and thrilling sight enough to be at that hour were held spell-bound in their tracks.

After a flashing over Dillon the fiery meteorite curved toward the earth, exploded with a roar that was heard in towns as far distant and scattered its fragments over wide areas.

The heavenly visitor was so large that traveling reports said that on that day that the countryside was lighted up as far as Fayetteville on the north and Florence on the south a distance of 85 miles.

How long this huge celestial body had been sailing around in space is only a matter of speculation. Fragments of some other world, it is possible that it was being tracked through space at terrific speeds for millions of years, or it just as probably, it had only been on its lone journey a few weeks or months.

There are mysteries that the mind of man has not been able to fathom.

The livid flame left in the wake of a meteorite is caused by friction as the falling body plunges through the earth's atmosphere at terrific speeds. The explosion is caused by the intense heat generated by atmospheric resistance. Rare instances meteorites have been known to strike the earth and burn themselves ten-and-twenty feet without exploding. This type of meteorite is dangerous, as sometimes they are large enough to smash a building like an egg shell, but as a rule they break into fragments high above the earth and scatter the harmless particles over a wide territory. It is reported that one of these "silent Sunday night" meteorites fell in an old colored woman's yard near Lamberton.

The phenomenon Sunday night was witnessed by Dillonites, many of whom enjoyed the unusual spectacle that it is reported that some of the more superstitious thought that the end of time had come—Dillon Herald.

New Colored Mortuary.

J. E. Spann, well known colored undertaker who bought the old "Eagle" Presbyterian church building on Gadsden street, several months ago, has given a contract to Ed Kennedy to remodel the building and when same is completed he will occupy it as an undertaking parlor.

The building, when remodeled, will be two stories with a basement. The second floor will be used as a community center for colored people where societies and lodges will hold meetings. Spann's brother is expected to come here from Great Falls and will open business in the stand now occupied by Spann on Gadsden street.

GOLFERS ACQUITTED.

Eight Camden men were acquitted of violation of the anti-blue law last Friday when they were tried in a Magistrate's Court at Camden. The men had previously been arrested for playing golf on Sunday, which arrests were instigated by Governor Richards. The jury rendered a verdict of acquittal in four and one-half minutes.

John M. Daniels, attorney general, assisted by W. R. Robinson, Columbia attorney, represented Camden to represent the State in the trial.

The trial and acquittal were James deLoach, Jr., R. W. Shanon, Jack Whitaker, Jr., J. F. Redfern, L. H. Smith, J. F. McDowell, Mendel Low Harris, Jr. and Hestey Tilden.

SEEK COURT ORDER TO REVEAL FACTS.

Stockholders of Defunct Bank Would Force Receiver to Disclose All.

Rock Hill, March 11.—A court order which would compel the receiver for the defunct Citizens Bank of Rock Hill, S. C., to disclose all facts regarding the conditions and transactions of the bank is sought by a group of 14 stockholders who, through their attorneys, having filed notice that such a motion is to be argued before a circuit judge.

The hearing was set for Tuesday before Judge E. C. Dennis at Rock Hill, but was postponed until next week. It probably will be argued there about next Thursday, it was said.

Action by this group after demand for payment of their liabilities was refused, has been made by D. E. McFadden, attorney for himself and other depositors. The notice contends that the stockholders are entitled to the knowledge and charges that such data has been withheld. The notice has been served upon the National Union bank at receiver.

Those joining in the action are generally small stockholders, with $20,000 in representation of about $200,000. Demand for payment of liability was made late in February and some are understood to have complied.

COLUMBIA CARS OPERATING.

Discontinue Trolley Service in City.

Columbia, Mar. 12.—Trolley service on the streets of Columbia has been indefinitely suspended, the cars having been stopped about a mile from the city, being taken by the Columbia Railway, Gas & Electric company. Reasons advanced by officials of the company are that the equipment is not suitable, and that the cost of operation is too great. It was said, the street cars have been losing money; the equipment is in bad condition, causing so great an expense of operation that funds realized from the sale of the cars do not warrant the maintenance of the system.

SLAYER OF GRANT IS FOUND GUILTY.

Second Degree Verdict At Henderson—Turner To Face Trial.

Hendersonville, N. C., March 12.—After deliberating shortly over an hour, the jury in the case of William Bernhart, charged with killing V. E. Grant, former state senator, returned a verdict yesterday afternoon of murder in the second degree.

The verdict of second degree murder carries with it a sentence of from two to 20 years under North Carolina law.

ATTEMPTS OWN LIFE.

Charles F. Ducker Fires Five Times and Uses Razor.

Dillon, March 11.—Charles F. Ducker, one of the county's most prominent citizens, attempted to commit suicide today by shooting himself and then trying to cut his throat with a razor. He was alone at the time and was not found until possibly an hour after the shooting. Dr. Dunbar has been in a check for some time and he was heard to say that he had the notion to kill himself and end his suffering. When found, he had a razor cut on his throat, but he was not physically hurt. Dr. Ducker was lastly arrested by Dr. O. S. Egan, who was summoned and rushed him to the hospital in Bennettsville. He died his pilot of the leg, but only one shot took effect in the temple coming out just above his right eye. It is feared that he is fatally wounded.

YORK NEWS

Items From The Yorkville Enquirer of More County People.

Information received from Gaffney this morning was to the effect that Mrs. Julia Grist, 62 years of age, who operated in a Gaffney hospital for appendicitis last Saturday is recovering nicely and her condition is now considered favorable.

Carlisle C. Moore, who several weeks ago went to a government hospital at Memphis, Tenn., to undergo an operation for appendicitis, has returned to his home in Yorkville and it will be the way to complete recovery from the operation.

Apparently smothered to death in a box, the body of a new born girl baby was found in the home of Ed Hudson, white tenant farmer, on the place of C. M. Inman, two miles west of Yorkville, Thursday. A physician who performed an autopsy on the body following the discovery, said that the baby had evidently been alive since one of its lungs floated in water. This physician was not named.

Addie Lamm, aged about 18, is said to be the mother of the child, which was born Wednesday morning. Priority of the child had not been ascertained. There had not been an inquest in progress.

The Ramsey girl is the step-daughter of Ed Hudson, he having married her mother, a widow, some years ago.

COST OF BEING GOVERNED INCREASES VERY RAPIDLY.

In the Past-Ten Years Expenses of South Carolina Government Have Increased Over Four Hundred Percent.

The cost of state government in America in the decade from 1915 to 1925 increased over an average of 226 per cent. South Carolina's increase for the same period was 149 per cent.

The data are taken from a compilation of state government cost statistics published yesterday by the University Weekly News, of Columbia, S. C.

The Weekly News not only outlines the facts in regard to the increase in state government expenses, but also suggests that the way of escape is found not in cutting down government activities, but in reorganizing and retaining more with which to pay the cost of government.

Highway Cost Heavy.—The cost of highway construction has increased by far during the decade under permanent improvements for 275 per cent. Hospitals and schools, the increase for the decade was 4,067 per cent. Other increases included: Pensions, 10 per cent; salaries, 79 per cent; sanitation, 98 per cent; health and charity, 614 per cent; protection to persons and property, 226 per cent; and agriculture, 226 per cent.

Twenty-seven states registered percentage gains greater than that for the nation as a whole. North Carolina takes first place with 847 per cent, or nearly four times the national increase.

Formerly Backward.—A startling feature of this variation lies in the fact that ten years ago some of the states were relatively backward in progressive development.

A Great Falls man in The News office this morning advised that many families were now moving to Great Falls and that the mill management was calling on those who had houses rented from them and who are not employed by the mill to vacate them in order that they might have room for their help. The mill will soon be running almost full capacity and it is said to have orders far ahead.

Appoint New County Agent.

Mr. Ralph W. Coarsy, of Atlanta, Georgia, has been appointed as County Agent for Chester county to succeed Mr. H. K. Sanders, who recently left Chester to accept a position as county agent in North Carolina.

Mr. Coarsy is a native of this county, is a graduate of Clemson College and has had wide experience in practical agriculture, especially dairy farming.

Following his graduation in 1923, Mr. Coarsy was engaged by Judge John S. Gandler, Atlanta, Ga., to take charge of his large Georgia herd and farm.

During that period the Gandler herd made unusual records with cows on Advanced Register Test, one two-year-old heifer making a state record. The herd also won five out of six championships at the Southeastern Fair, Atlanta, for two years. Two years ago, Mr. Coarsy went with C. H. Beuchler, Atlanta, producer of special baby milk. This business he bought in May, 1925, and has been operating it since that time.

Following his graduation in 1923, Mr. Coarsy was engaged by Judge John S. Gandler, Atlanta, Ga., to take charge of his large Georgia herd and farm.

During that period the Gandler herd made unusual records with cows on Advanced Register Test, one two-year-old heifer making a state record. The herd also won five out of six championships at the Southeastern Fair, Atlanta, for two years. Two years ago, Mr. Coarsy went with C. H. Beuchler, Atlanta, producer of special baby milk. This business he bought in May, 1925, and has been operating it since that time.

Dollar Days at Edgemoor.

Next Thursday, Friday and Saturday will be Dollar Days at Edgemoor Department Store. A full page advertisement in this issue of The News gives a list of a number of items, the prices of which have been reduced for this occasion.

It is customary with the Edgemoor chain of stores to have Dollar Days during this month and to offer exceptional bargains to their customers throughout the Carolina States.

There are many reductions which are not listed in the advertisement and it will also be noted that special prices are also offered on all merchandise and that the sale does not strictly apply to purchases of one dollar. Mr. S. E. Hovey, manager of the local store, spent yesterday at the Edgemoor store in Charlotte selecting additional items to be offered special at this sale.

FREE- During the Month of March BEGINNING March 1st we will give one year's subscription to The McCall Magazine and one pattern FREE with each purchase of TEN Dollars and over. This is a great opportunity to get wonderful magazine and a free Pattern. The Robt. Frazer Co.
