THE BROTHELDOMS DANGERS...
VIRUTAL STATE OF WAR EXIST

When inaugurating his administration, President Roosevelt had foreseen a state of war. This he now has so far achieved as to make it appear that the world is his. His first speech to Congress foretold the conflict between the United States and Germany, and this year there are signs of war. It is no longer a question of what will happen, but only of when it will begin. The President has already declared that he will not be deterred by any threats from Germany. He has made it clear that he will not surrender to the pressure of Germany.

The United States has already declared war on Germany. The President has also ordered the navy and army to prepare for war. The navy has been instructed to build more battleships and to increase its fleet. The army has been ordered to prepare for a land war. The President has also declared that he will not negotiate with Germany. He has said that he will not allow Germany to dictate terms to the United States.

The President has also ordered the navy to prepare for a sea war. The navy has been instructed to build more battleships and to increase its fleet. The President has also ordered the army to prepare for a land war. The army has been ordered to prepare for a land war.

In his last speech to Congress, the President declared that he would not allow Germany to dictate terms to the United States. He has also declared that he would not allow Germany to interfere with the rights of the United States. He has said that he would not allow Germany to interfere with the rights of the United States.

UNPREPAREDNESS:

SHEED GERARD

Surprised to find Uncle Sam unprepared, says Sayre.

New York, March 16—James W. Gerard, former ambassador to Germany, embargoed in a 1939 speech in which he said:

"When I come back to this country, I shall try to find that in the two years since I left here, we have spent far more money on the military than we spent on the nation.”

Mr. H. B. Murphy was awarded the prize March 17th.
