

3-19-1909

The Lantern, Chester S.C.- March 19, 1909

W F. Caldwell

J Frank Latimer

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/chesterlantern1909>

Part of the Journalism Studies Commons, and the Social History Commons

Recommended Citation

Caldwell, W F. and Latimer, J Frank, "The Lantern, Chester S.C.- March 19, 1909" (1909). The Chester Lantern 1909. 23.

<https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/chesterlantern1909/23>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the The Chester Lantern at Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Chester Lantern 1909 by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@mailbox.winthrop.edu.

By Rex Beach

COPYRIGHT, 1909, BY HARPER & BROTHERS

"Those dope people at camp here don't strike me" he said in an exaggerated Polish.

"It wouldn't be easy for them after they got there," Stark said sourly. "I for one wouldn't stand for it."

"No," I agreed bluntly.

"Don't see how you'd help yourself," the trader remarked. "Dope man's got as good a right as another."

"I guess I'd help myself all right," Stark laughed significantly, as did Bunton, who added:

"Lee is entitled to put in anybody he wants on his own discovery, and if anybody tries to get ahead of him, they're liable to be trouble."

"I don't know if I don't know so short and nobody else does," Lee remarked, whereupon Dorset spoke up reassuringly:

"There's no use getting' scared like that, because nobody knows where Lee's creek beds' locate but John and me, and Lee's nobody who knows he makes a strike but us four."

"That's right," said Gale. "The only other way across is by Black Bear creek, and there ain't a half dozen men ever been up to the head of that stream, much less over the divide, so I don't allow there's any use to fret ourselves."

They went on their way, traveling leisurely until late evening, when they camped at the mouth of the valley up which the miner's cabin lay. CAMP had been made early at Gale's suggestion instead of pushing on a few more miles, as Lee had intended, and now, when the cool evening fell, they lay off gloves and headgear, so they sat cross-legged, talking, smoking and rubbing their tired feet.

It is at such hours and in the smoke of such fires that men back backward and bring forth the sacred, time-worn memories they have treasured to turn them over fondly by the glow of dying wood.

"No Creek," Lee, the one-eyed miner who had made this lucky strike, told the other words in a low, confidential, staccato style, when his luck had risen with him at the dawn and misfortune had struck him as he drifted and glom from camp to camp, while the glow of a settled pessimism surrounded him, and men began to stum him because of the still that seemed to follow in his steps.

"I've been rainbow chased" forty years," he said, "and never caught neither but cramps and epidemics and inflammation. I'm the only miner in the gold and never had a creek named after him."

"How do you get your name?" asked Bunton.

"I'm a miner was no good to my name, as if trying to solve some middle that baffled him.

They awoke early and in half an hour had eaten, remade their packs, and were ready to resume their march. As they were about to start Gale said: "I reckon we'd better settle right where we get up today. I've been so stampeded" wherever I started a heap of times," advised Stark. "There's no use in trying to solve some middle that baffled him.

household tales that were prized like pieces of the Burrell plate, beautiful and precious of sentiment that have the honor of high blooded bones, followed in there was much to recount of the Meades, from the seminal who fought as a boy in the bay of Tripoli down to the cousin who was at Annapolis, the while his interior hung upon his words longly, he tried so quick in pursuit of his life that it spurred him unconsciously, his great dark eyes were closed in silent rapture, wide with wonder, and in them at last the warmth of the leading fire-light, blended with the trust of a new born virginity.

There he began to laugh shortly, and then he said, "I can't say 'Oh, nothing but a laugh shortly, if they could see me now." "Oh, nothing but a laugh shortly, if they could see me now." "Oh, nothing but a laugh shortly, if they could see me now."

"I don't care," he went on, unbothered by her question. "They do some things in their time, from what I hear." He leaned forward to draw her in.

"Worse things! But we are doing nothing bad," said Neia, holding him off. "They're so wrong in loving."

"I am proud of it," she declared. "It's the finest thing, the greatest thing that has ever come into my life, and I simply can't hold it. I want to sing to the stars and cry it out to the whole world. Don't you?"

"I hardly think we'd better advertise," he said dryly.

"Well, I shouldn't care to publish the fact of this excursion of ours. Would you?"

"I don't see any reason against it. I have often taken trips with Polon and he never says a word about it, and days at a time."

"But you were not a woman then," she said.

"No, not until today, that's true. Dear, dear, how I did grow all of a sudden! And yet I'm just the same as you are now."

"You had been an inmate of a child-habit in her talk that brought back a smile to her face, and she had been her fancy as a little girl to speak in adjectives, ignoring many of the most useful and necessary words so amused her father that on rare occasions, when the humor was on him, he would look up at her and address herself to Bunrell in the same manner.

"I think we are very smart to come so far," she said.

"You travel like a deer," he declared admiringly. "Why, you have treed me down." Removing his park he stretched the bear-skin and shook out the corners of his boots.

"Bigs should never cook," she declared. "That work belongs to little," he said, and then he turned to her and turned himself to the matter duties of chopping wood and bousha.

"I've been in the kitchen with him how to place two green foot logs upon which the teapot and the frying pan would sit without upsetting and how they established the sticks of cooking wood. Then she banished him, and he went, and he built a wicket of spruce wood, which the abelter, which was piled thick, fragrant billows of "Tokon feathers."

He filled his chest deeply and leaned on his ax, for he found himself asking as if under the spell of some great expectancy.

"Your supper is getting cold," she called to him.

"I had a seat beside her on a pile of boughs where the smoke was least troublesome. He had chosen a spot that was sheltered by a lichen-covered rock, and he had a good view of the wicket joining it, formed an alcove that felt then a certain air of privacy. He had a good view of the wicket joining it, formed an alcove that felt then a certain air of privacy. He had a good view of the wicket joining it, formed an alcove that felt then a certain air of privacy.

The Heathen Chinee.

By Bret Harte.

Which is true to remark.
And my language is plain.
That for was that awe-dark,
And for tricks that are said,
The Heathen Chinee is peculiar.
Which the same I would rise to maintain.

Ah Nin was his name,
And I will not say more.
In regard to the same,
What that was might imply.
But his smile it was pensive and child-like.

Which frequent remarked to Bill Nye
It was August the third
And soft were the skies,
Which it might be inferred,
But he argued as he sat by the table,
And he smiled it was childlike and child-like.

Now those cards they were stacked
In a way that I grieve
And my feelings were shocked,
Which was stuffed full of aces and bowsers,
And the same with intent to deceive
But the hands that were played,
And the points that he made,
Were quite frightful to see.
Till at length he put down a left bow.

Which the same Nye had dead unto me,
And I looked up at Nye,
And Nye gazed down at me,
And he rose with a sigh,
Which he said, "I am not a Chinee,
We are ruined by Chinese cheap labor."

And he went for that heathen Chinee
In the scene which ensued,
Did not take a hand
But the floor it was strewn,
Like the leaves on the strand,
With the cards Ah Nin had been hid.

Lyle Events.

Lyle Events.

Mr. C. D. Wald, a prosperous farmer, was killed on March 15. He was glad to see the beautiful sunshine today after two or three days of rain.

The farmers will not be able to plough for several days yet.

Mr. C. D. Wald, a prosperous farmer, was killed on March 15. He was glad to see the beautiful sunshine today after two or three days of rain.

The farmers will not be able to plough for several days yet.

Mr. C. D. Wald, a prosperous farmer, was killed on March 15. He was glad to see the beautiful sunshine today after two or three days of rain.

The farmers will not be able to plough for several days yet.

Edgemoor Events.

Edgemoor Events.

Mr. C. D. Wald, a prosperous farmer, was killed on March 15. He was glad to see the beautiful sunshine today after two or three days of rain.

The farmers will not be able to plough for several days yet.

Mr. C. D. Wald, a prosperous farmer, was killed on March 15. He was glad to see the beautiful sunshine today after two or three days of rain.

The farmers will not be able to plough for several days yet.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

CHAPTER VII.

THE BURRELL CASE.

It was the morning of the 19th of March that the Burrell family, consisting of the father, the mother, and the two children, were sitting at the breakfast table in the dining room of the Burrell place. The father was looking at the paper, the mother was looking at the children, and the children were looking at each other.

SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE

City Property of the Estate Of COL. SAMUEL W. MOBLEY To Be Sold At Auction

By virtue of the powers of sale contained in the will of Samuel W. Mobley, deceased, and vested in the undersigned by law, we, the Administrators with the said will annexed, will sell at public auction to the highest bidder all the City Real Estate of the late Col. Samuel W. Mobley, consisting of four business lots on Gadsden Street. One of them being an improved lot with a double story brick store-room thereon; also two lots fronting on valley Street; also fifty five lots lying on and between Saluda and Walnut Streets, one of them being the lot with the dwelling house and other improvements thereon. All of said fifty five lots being suitable for building purposes and fronting either on Saluda Street, Walnut Street, an extension of Foote Street, or a new Street laid off thereon and known as Mobley Street. The said property being all fully represented on the plat thereof hereto attached.

The said Sale will begin at 10 o'clock A. M., on TUESDAY, the 6th day of APRIL next, on grounds of the Gadsden Street lots.

TERMS OF SALE: One-third cash and the balance in two equal installments, payable in one and two years, with interest from the day of sale, to be secured by the note and mortgage of the purchaser, and in the case of the improved lots with provision for reasonable insurance on the improvements for the benefit of mortgagee. All mortgages to contain a ten percent clause for attorney's fees in case of suit and foreclosure. The purchaser has the privilege to pay the whole in cash. The purchaser to pay $3.00 for deed and also for mortgage and recording when given.

SAML D. MOBLEY and F. M. DURHAM,
Administrators with the Will Annexed of Saml' W. Mobley, dec'd.

A. G. BRICE, Attorney.

Children Who Are Sickly.

Mother who values their own comfort and the welfare of their children, should never be without a box of Mother's Own Sweet Powders for Children. For use throughout the season, they break up colds, cure feverishness, soothe the stomach, relieve diarrhoea, headache and stomach troubles. These Powders Never Fail. Sold by all Drug Stores. Don't accept any other name. A full package of these powders for any mother who will address Allen S. Christian, L.A., N.Y.

At a prayer meeting a good old brother stood up and said he was glad to give testimony.
"My wife and I," he said, "started in life with hardly a cent. In the world. We began at the lowest round of the ladder, but the Lord has been good to us, and we have worked up to what we are, and we have bought a little farm and raised good crops. My wife and I have a nice family of children, and," he added, with most emphatic "I am the head of that family."
After he sat down his wife promptly arose to corroborate all that he had said. But she added, with satisfaction "I am the neck that moves the head."

Exchange.

"My three year old boy was badly constipated, had a high fever and was in a awful condition. I gave him two doses of Foley's Kidney Pills and the next morning he was well and his mother said, 'Foley's Kidney Pills saved his life.' A. W. Cook, Casimer, Wis. Leitner's Pharmacy, N.Y.

Some men are born fool, but most of us acquire foolishness.

We say without hesitation that DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills are unequalled for weak kidneys, backache, inflammation of the bladder and all urinary disorders. They are antiseptic and act promptly in all cases of weak back, backache, rheumatism, chronic jaundice, accept no substitute. We sell and recommend them. Standard Pharmacy.

Jones—"Is your son still on the stage?"
"Well—"No; he has a speaking part now."—Judge.

Near Death in Big Pond
It was a thrilling experience Mrs. Ith Soper to face death. For over a year a severe lung trouble gave her intense suffering. She writes, "I nearly ceased my death. All remedies failed and doctors said I was incurable. Then Dr. King's New Discovery brought a quick relief and a cure so permanent that I have not been troubled in twelve years." Mrs. Soper lives in Big Pond, Pa. It works wonders in coughs and colds, sore lungs, hemorrhages, in-purification, asthma, bronchitis, whooping-cough and all bronchial affections. 50¢ and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by the Chester Drug Co., and S. S. Leitner.

Mr. J. Arthur Henderson has sold to A. A. Henderson for $5,700, property on North Tryon street, near the Seaboard station and adjoining the Battenville property. It fronts on 142 feet on Tryon street and is 158 feet deep.—Charlotte Observer.

Epidemic of Hydrophobia.

There is an epidemic of hydrophobia down the line of the Carolina and North-Western railroad, extending from the southern part of York township, through Batesville and on to and beyond Lowryville, and many people down that way are very much concerned about it.

As to the origin of the epidemic, Mr. Jackson could not say, but the existence of hydrophobia had been known for several weeks. A large collie belonging to Rev. J. K. Hall, ran amok and bit several other dogs and a number of other animals, including two calves and a pig, belonging to Mr. J. P. Moore. The dog was killed near Lowryville. The calves and pig afterward developed rabies and were killed. Another collie belonging to Mr. Mason Bratton ran amok and bit a number of dogs. This dog came back home and Mr. Bratton had killed Mr. John A. Harshaw had two fine bull dogs that he prized very highly. In a wire enclosure. Another dog came along and bit them through the wire. Not caring to take any chance Mr. Harshaw had the bull dogs killed.

A small pug dog followed some children about five miles and began acting suspiciously. Miss Ella Jackson, the teacher, had it killed.
A number of people throughout the county who have had dogs and other animals bitten are keeping the animals up awaiting developments.—Yorkville Enquirer.

Foley's Kidney Remedy will cure any case of kidney or bladder trouble that is not beyond the reach of medicine. Cures backache and irregularities that if neglected might bring on Bright's disease or diabetes. Leitner's Pharmacy.

In days of old—
When brigands were bold
And quills to draw the blade,
Their endless scrapes
For writing chaps
A deal of copy made.
And it was well,
That they did slash and carve,
For had they not,
Today a lot
Of novelists would starve.
—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Kills Would-Be Slayer
A merciless murderer is Appended to his victims. But Dr. King's New Life Pills kill by prevention. They gently stimulate stomach, liver and bowels, treating that digestive tract that invites appetite, curing constipation, biliousness, indigestion, headache and indigestion. See at the Wheeler Drug Co. and S. S. Leitner.

When a portion of food has become lodged between the teeth it can be removed by pulling an ordinary rubber band between the teeth. This will be found much better than a toothpick, which breaks, leaving a piece of wood. The rubber will not injure the teeth.—Exchange.

How Sound Waves Move.

The speed with which sound waves are transmitted through the atmosphere depends upon several conditions. When the temperature is at 32 degrees F. sounds move at the speed of 1,090 feet per second, the velocity increasing with the temperature at the rate of about one foot of speed per second for each degree above the freezing point. Then again, in damp air sound moves with a greater velocity than it does in dry air, no odds if the dry air be warm and the damp cold. In water sound moves more than four times as fast as it does in air, or say at about the rate of 4,700 feet per second.—Exchange.

Simple Remedy for La Grippe

Rev. Joseph B. Pepperman, Salisbury, N. C., who is the author of several books, books, writes: "For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was unable to bed rest, frequently day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated finally ceased and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy." Leitner's Pharmacy.

He isn't much of a baker who eats all the bread he kneads.

How can any person risk taking some unknown sough remedy when Foley's Money and Tar coats them no matter how bad their cough is with a safe, reliable, powerful drug, and cures the most obstinate coughs and colds. Why experiment with your health! Insist upon having the genuine Foley's Money and Tar. Leitner's Pharmacy.

The wonderful versatility of President Taft and the wit of Archbishop Ryan were evidenced during a brilliant talk on the occasion of a. Taft's visit to this city a few days ago.

The occupant of the White House in congratulating his grace on how well he looked and how prudent he should be of his diocese, remarked: "I understand you have in your cathedral the best sample of Romanesque architecture in this city, if not in the country."

"Yes," replied his grace, "and I would be very glad to have you visit it."

Then, with a significant look, he added: "If I cannot receive you into my church, I can at least take you into my cathedral.—Philadelphia Press.

The Lurid Glow of Doom
was seen in the red face, hands and hair of the little son of an Adams man from ectema had, for five years, defiled himself and battered his body. He was seen in the red face, hands and hair, who said the poisoned blood had been looked and he writes his mother, "Save him. But" and nothing could cure him and he writes his mother, "Seven bottles of Foley's Bitters completely cured him and he is now a healthy man." See at the Chester Drug Co. and S. S. Leitner.

It's Your Kidneys

Don't Mistake the Cause of Your Troubles. A Chester Citizen Shows How to Cure Them.
Many people never suspect their kidneys. If suffering from a lame, weak or aching back, they think that it is only a muscular weakness; when urinary troubles occur in their think it will soon correct itself. And so it is with all the other symptoms of kidney disorders. That is just where the danger lies. You must cure these troubles or they may lead to diabetes or Bright's disease. The best remedy is in Doan's Kidney Pills. It cures all ills which are caused by weak or diseased kidneys. Chester people testify to permanent cures.
J. B. Lee, of Chester, S. C., says: "I am glad to acknowledge the benefit I derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. My back gave me a great deal of trouble and at times I was so weak I could scarcely attend to my business. My back and I have since been strengthened or free from pain. I am pleased to give this remedy my endorsement."
For sale by all dealers. Price, 50¢. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The things that would make a woman happy look foolish to a man.

Foley's Money and Tar sough sough quickly strengthens the lungs and expels colds. Get the genuine in a yellow package. Leitner's Pharmacy.

It Saved His Leg

"All though I'd lose my leg," writes J. A. Swenson, Waterbury, Wis. "Ten years of rheumatism, that is doctors could not cure, had at last laid me up. Then Burkin's Arnica Balm cured it sound, and well." Infallible for skin eruptions, eczema, salt rheum, boils, fever sores, burns, scalds, cuts and piles. See at The Chester Drug Co. and T. S. Leitner.

"So the world is getting better!"
"So most people think."
"Or are we just getting used to it?"
—Louisville Courier-Journal.

A Religious Author's Statement

The grippe coughs are dangerous as they frequently develop into pneumonia. Foley's Money and Tar promptly stops the cough, but heats and strengthens the lungs so that no serious results need be feared. This genuine Foley's Money and Tar contains various powerful drugs and is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. Leitner's Pharmacy.

The Secret PATENTS

FOR ALL CREATION
of a good liniment is in its warming, penetrating and scattering qualities. The ingredients of Noah's Liniment are such that with very little rubbing the parts are warmed, the inflammation and congestion scattered, and the relief is almost instantaneous.
For Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lame Back, Stiff Joints, and Muscles, Sore Throat, Colds, Neuralgia, Toothache, Headache, Rheumatism, Sprains, Swellings, Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Itches, and all Aches and Pains. The genuine Noah's Liniment is made by Dr. J. C. Moore, a well-known chemist, and is sold in a small tin, 50¢, and a large tin, $1.00. Guaranteed. See at the Chester Drug Co. and S. S. Leitner.

For Dyspepsia and Indigestion

For Sale by the Standard Pharmacy

Kodol

For Sale by the Standard Pharmacy

KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS

WITH Dr. King's New Discovery FOR COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, AND ALL THROAT AND LUNG TROUBLES. GUARANTEED SATISFACTORY. 50¢ BOTTLE RETURNED.

Baled Cotton Seed Cotton Ginneries

Both System and Old Style

I make the handling of INSURANCE on above mentioned property a specialty. See me, write or phone me, before placing your INSURANCE.

Kodol

For Sale by the Standard Pharmacy

So, don't neglect your stomach. Don't become a chronic dyspeptic. Keep your stomach healthy and strong by taking a Little Kodol. You don't have to take Kodol all the time. You only take it when you need it.

You need a sufficient amount of good, wholesome food to maintain strength and health. But, this food must be digested thoroughly otherwise the pains of indigestion and dyspepsia are the result.

When your stomach cannot do its work properly, take something to help your stomach. Kodol is the only thing that will give the stomach a complete rest.

Why? Because Kodol does the man's work, and a strong stomach, and does it in a natural way.

For Sale by the Standard Pharmacy

Office Phone... No. 22, Residence Phone... No. Chester, S. C.

C. C. EDWARDS

Office Phone... No. 22, Residence Phone... No. Chester, S. C.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE

Will cure any case of Kidney or Bladder Disease not beyond the reach of medicine. No medicine can do more. Cures Backache, Corrects Irregularities, Do not risk having Bright's Disease or Diabetes. LEITNER'S PHARMACY