TUESDAY, APRIL 13.

We believe the majority of the citizens of Chester would have favored a larger bond issue for street improvements than the one voted on several months ago. As we stated at the time, Chester could not legally issue any more bonds than those voted on.

As soon as the contractors complete the paving of York street and the people see just what improved streets mean to our good city, they are going to be so satisfied that they ever for improved streets throughout the entire town, and the News believes that if the people want them they ought to be held in contempt.

An act passed at the recent meeting of the General Assembly permits the voting of bond issues for the improvement of streets. We have no idea other than that the Amendment will pass, and as soon as it is done Chester should begin to consider more paved streets.

We are all familiar with the present condition of Chester's streets and hills. We thought they will probably come to the conclusion that they have been in this deplorable condition for years and that sometimes their present condition until they are improved.

It doesn't pay to grow low-grade or scrub stock any kind. The United States Department of Agriculture in connection with a series of tests on efficiency in farm management on the South-0-289 dairy farms it was found that 48 farms receiving $50 and less income per cow had labor incomes 46 per cent below the general average. On the other hand, the 28 farms with receipts per cow more than $120 had labor income 75 per cent above the average and were the most profitable of the group. The quality of the live stock kept is one of the 16 points which the department is to be tested in determining the efficiency of farm management. Full information concerning the test will be given in a new circular of the department.

THE PRICE OF COAL.

Any increase in the cost of mining coal must necessarily result in one of two things—a rejection in the profits of the operators or an increase in the price of the coal. It is not difficult to guess which alternative will be adopted in the absence of any government authority for the regulation of the price. But there ought to be some authority empowered to see that the price shall be advanced if it shall not be made the pretext for the extraction of additional profits from the long-suffering public.

It has been so often the experience of the consumers that every increase in the miners' wage scale has been attended not by a corresponding increase in retail prices of coal but by an addition sometimes twice the increase in the cost. This experience has made the consumer sensitive of the subject, suspicious of the explanations offered by the coal trade and disposed to be skeptical of the necessity of any price increase at all. Suspicion and discontent of this sort in the fertile soil in which popular sentiment for the nationalization of the mines is apt to grow.

Fuel is a necessity, and its supply belongs to those functions of organized society to whom we apply the name of public utilities. During the war control of these utilities was found essential to the national safety. If the mine operators would prevent or even materially delay some effective measure of control under normal peace conditions they would be extremely cautious in entering upon any price-fixing program. And the coal trade as a whole would do well to consider thoroughly the fate of the public mind on the fuel price question, and especially the impression created by their apparent disposition to make price increases retroactive as well as uniform in their incidence. There is still such a thing as conspiracy in restraint of trade, if it be reckoned with, and this consumers are in no mood to omit any measures of defense against what they regard as devious "exploitation" with "retroactive" wage scales at the mines as the excuse.

ASK FOR REMOVAL OF HOSPITAL HEAD

Commander of American Legion in North Carolina, Wm. H. Chase, Made at Onch.

Asheville, N. C., April 11.—Senator F. M. Simmons of North Carolina has been requested by John Beasley of Montreat, commander of the North Carolina department of the American Legion, to use his influence to secure the removal of Lieut. Col. H. L. Lyster, commander of United States army general hospital, No. 19, at Otten, near here. In his telegram to the senator, Commander Beasley declares that the hospital holds Colonel Lyster responsible for the conditions which have existed at Otten and not the soldiers themselves who are held for court-martial.

His message follows: "Senator F. M. Simmons, Washington, D. C.: The North Carolina department of the American Legion requests that you use your influence towards securing the removal of Lieut. Colonel Lyster from command of the government tuberculosis hospital at Otten, as the war department's investigation of conditions there having practically substantiated our contentions of abuse of patients, and the prevalence of unsanitary conditions. We hold him responsible and not the soldiers met who are held for court-martial. Your efforts to bring about his removal or demotion will be appreciated by the thousands of ex-servicemen in North Carolina."

The Thirteen Mistakes of Life.
Judge McCormack, of San Francisco, says these are the 13 mistakes in life:

1. To attempt to set up your own standards of right and wrong.
2. To try to measure the enjoyment of others by your own.
3. To expect uniformity of opinions in this world.
4. To fail to make allowances for imperfections.
5. To endeavor to mold all dispositions alike.
6. Not to yield to unimportant trifles.
7. To look for perfection in our own actions.
8. To worry ourselves and others about what cannot be remedied.
9. Not to help everybody, wherever, however and whenever we can.
10. To consider anything impossible that we cannot ourselves perform.
11. To believe only what our finite minds can grasp.
12. Not to make allowances for the weakness of others.
13. To estimate by some outside quality when it is that within which makes the difference.

Viciously Suffering.

(New York Evening Sun.)
The woman was stifling a sneeze and groaning inwardly against the ubiquitous "flu" germ. It wasn't so much that she dreaded a possible attack as it was that she dreaded the time it would take. "What in the world would happen to her if she had to go to bed for a few days?" The knowledge of what would await her at the end of those days of enforced inaction would sit on her chest and flap its wings and crow over her, making convalescence a nightmare.

At this point in her reverie the maid came. And joy! There was a letter from Aunt Miranda—dear cheerful Aunt Miranda, whose semi-invalid family had always kept her too-busy with their ailments to have time to fret any of her own. Sure enough the letter started out bravely and skimmed lightly over news that would shake a lone determined cheer. Finally, after references to sons, daughters and grandchildren more or less "blinky" with "flu" the acknowledgment that she too was being fished.

"Yes," she wrote blithely, "I certainly have rather had a bad case of influenza and Bertha's in bed with it to grow."

Lucky Aunt Miranda, to be able to have "flu" vicariously! And fortunate she to have a "Bertha" to take it to bed for her.

BAD TYPE OF LIQUOR

Macon Doctors and Police Have Busy Day.
Macon, Ga., April 11.—A new type of illicit liquor which appeared here today kept doctors and nurses busy in a local hospital. Up to 9 o'clock tonight four negroes had been shot and two cut with knives. The police made 12 arrests to prevent further injuries. Police say the new liquor is made from a mixture containing more than the usual quantity.

The local Board of Health held a meeting this morning and appointed Dr. W. R. Wallace as acting chairman, the chairmanship having been made vacant by the resignation of Dr. H. H. Kalkos. Dr. Wallace reports a case of small-pox on Melrose street, the patient being Paul McClellan. The house has been quarantined and a guard placed at its entrance. The public is requested to avoid this vicinity as much as possible. The Board is requested to see that all pupils have vaccination scars and those who have not should be vaccinated at once.

Mr. Colvin is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. O'Donnell, of Chester, and for the past several months has been the typewriter operator in the Chester News office. During this year 1,068 new societies were started.

ENDEAVORERS HOLD GREAT CONVENTION IN SPARTANBURG

Spartanburg, April 10.—Four hundred and thirty South Carolina young people, two hundred of them of Spartanburg, are registered delegates at the State Christian Endeavor Convention which began in the First Presbyterian church Friday night. The convention lasts through Sunday and promises, says its leaders, to be one of the greatest religious gatherings ever held in the state.

The Friday night program began with a song service led by F. B. Corwin of the Spartanburg Y. M. C. A. followed by a devotional period by D. A. Switzer, of Columbia, Capt. A. W. Horton, of Spartanburg, delivered an address of welcome to the Endeavorers and this was responded to by S. W. Dundy of Clinton.

The two main addresses of the Friday night session of the Endeavor gathering were delivered by Chas. F. Evans, of Lexington, Ky., field secretary of the Endeavor organization in the South, with a message as to what the convention in Spartanburg should mean to the delegates, and by E. Percy Gates, of Boston, general secretary of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, in a thrilling speech on the grip of the Christian Endeavor organization is found in every nation among every race of people on the globe and in them eighty denominations.

Mr. Gates stated that there were more new Endeavor Societies organized in the last six months of 1919 than in any other year since the society was started in 1881. Mr. Gates stated that during the months of January and February of this year 1,068 new societies were started.

TRADE MARK.

WHY THE DEMAND FOR CABBAGE IS SO VARIABLE

An increase of 33 per cent in the price of cabbage, announced by the government for January, may be traced directly to the "Maggie and Jiggs" comic feature, says a Seattle commission man.

"It's a case of psychology that the power of suggestion and advertising," declared this merchant. "More than 100,000 persons in Seattle every night read The Times. Most of them are interested in the doings of Maggie and Jiggs' in 'Bringing Up Father,' and all are in sympathy with Jiggs' fight to get the demand for cabbage on the table. Unconsciously nine out of 10 get hungry for corned beef or ham and cabbage whenever the subject is mentioned. Did you ever go to the theatre and see a meal served on the stage? Didn't you smell water for some of the same? Or did you ever read a Dickens novel without hungering for some of the old English dishes he so frequently describes in such enticing detail?"

"It is true, and if one notices it carefully he will know that the day following a McManus cartoon in which ham and cabbage is mentioned the demand for cabbage on the Seattle market takes a long jump."

"One day in particular I remember from all sides. Retailers couldn't get enough and I bought about for a reason. Accidentally I picked up The Times from the day before, and I found my reason. Jiggs, on that day, had broken away from a flock of high-browed persons made his way to the kitchen and enjoyed life for a few minutes, seated at the table with the cook, a policeman and a pot of ham and cabbage."

"Well, the cabbage looked so good to me that I actually asked my wife

Dr. W. J. McGlothlin, president of Puman university, will write a history of South Carolina Baptists. This book will contain about 400 pages. The promise by Dr. McGlothlin to write this long belated volume is the result of overtures made to him by a special committee appointed by the general board of the state convention of the Baptist denomination in South Carolina through the commission on Sunday schools, B. Y. P. U. and Colportage looking to the publication of this work. Dr. McGlothlin, although under contract to write a similar history for Virginia Baptists yielded to the urgent South Carolina request by agreeing to proceed with the work as early as practicable.

Kelly-Buckley & Company, of Brockton, Mass., shoe manufacturers are doubtless the proud possessors of a Chester county bale of cotton. During the "Buy a Bale Movement" in 1914 the above named firm waded Joseph Wylie & Company, sending them a check for $50 with which to buy a bale of cotton. Wylie & Company bought a bale under the movement from Mr. D. S. Worthing, of this county, and placed it in the warehouse sending Kelly-Buckley & Company the warehouse receipt. This firm is now liquidating their affairs and yesterday morning Joseph Wylie & Company received a letter from them with reference to the bale of cotton. It will be noted that this firm who bought the bale under the 1914 movement will realize a nice sum in the way of profit on this Chester county bale of cotton.

Mr. L. D. Childs, formerly of Chester, but who has been residing in St. Petersburg, Fla., for several years, was a candidate for Mayor in that city recently. We are in receipt of a copy of The Evening Independent, published in the above mentioned city, and it indicates that the election has been a rather warm one. There were three other candidates in the race besides Mr. Childs. The election was held several days ago, and although we have been watching local State papers we have not noticed the result of the election. An advertisement appearing in the above mentioned paper gives a list of several crimes which had been committed in St. Petersburg and the last paragraph reads: "This is a brief mention of some of the latest record of Mayor Lang's police force which Mr. Childs will not promise to 'clean up'—although every other candidate for mayor has promised to do so—and which is working by all its corrupt political methods to elect Mr. Childs and perpetuate its ring power. Voters will you vote to continue this condition in St. Petersburg?"

LET US SELL IT.

If you wanted to buy a pair of shoes you would not go to a drug store to find them. It's the same way about buying a piece of property, etc. If a man wants to buy property the logical place for him to go is to a real estate dealer—they have more to offer, and at more attractive prices than the individual. List your property with us for sale. If we do not find a buyer it will cost you one penny. If you sell it yourself, pay us nothing. Briefly, "No Sale, No Pay."

The E. A. Strout Farm Agency, which represents in Chester county by us, interests people in one part of the country in property in other states. If a man from Texas is to Chester to look at a farm we will show him the farms LISTED WITH US. You might have the farm he want but if it is not listed you know about that business to know we are not going to sell yours for our health.

In four days time we have listed over 5,000 acres, and in addition several residential lots and also a few residences, the total amounts to approximately $500,000. By the first of May we expect to have over a million dollars worth of Chester county real estate listed.

All to gain and absolutely nothing to lose. Write, see or phone us. PEGRAM & CASSELL, Chester, S. C.

Miss Dunovant to Wed.

A beautiful bridge party given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Joseph L. Nettles at her home in the Thomas apartment, the engagement of Miss Mary Dunovant of the City to Ed. Wulick of Newton, N. C., was announced. The affair assembled about 25 of the mutual friends of the hostess and guest of honor and through the secret was imparted without further details as to the date or plans of the wedding. The first intimation was given the guests by the decoration of the head table, where Miss Dunovant's place was marked by a miniature bridal party, complete in every detail. Later when everybody had been seated there was placed on each table a card decorated with a wedding illustration and bearing the names of Miss Mary Dunovant and Miss Dunovant-Warlick. With Miss Dunovant at the head table was another bride-elect, Miss Mary Bruton, whose marriage to John Bollen, Jr., is an interesting event of this month. After the game Miss Dunovant was presented by the hostess with an exquisite bit of lingerie for the trousseau and Miss Bruton was given a pair of lovely handkerchiefs. The score prize, an embroidered handkerchief, was given to Miss Mary Dunovant and the consolation an embroidered handkerchief fell to Miss Willmot Bruton. The room were decorated in pink, white and spring flowers and when cards had been laid aside a salad course followed by sweets was served.

Miss Dunovant is the only daughter of John W. Dunovant who moved to Columbia a few years ago from Chester. She was graduated from the former College in Women and is coming to this city to live has made herself widely popular through the charm of her sincerity, her naturalness and genuineness of character. She and her father, reside at the home of Mrs. Sadler Gillespie on Adams street.

Mr. Warlick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Warlick of Newton, N. C., and is a graduate of Trinity College. He volunteered for military service shortly after the United States entered the world war and was sent to Camp Jackson with one of the best companies of soldiers and later received a commission as Lieutenant at the Camp Jackson officers' training school. He was sent overseas with a replacement unit and attached to the Seventy-ninth division with which he saw active service, being severely wounded in action that he was six months in a hospital. He is associated with his father in the cotton mill business—Columbia State.

The living room, dining room and hall were so nicely and very attractive in Easter decorations Vases of Easter lilies and other cut flowers were used with pretty effect. An especially attractive feature was the dining table with its centerpiece of Easter rabbits and chickens.

The tables by means of dainty Easter score cards, and Forty-two was enjoyed for an hour or so. Mrs. Mark Newman assisted Mrs. Cuthbertson in keeping score.

After dainties were laid aside a tempting salad course with ice tea was served. The Easter party was carried out in the refreshments.

After Gold Star Rank. There have been six district Sunday School Conferences held so far in Chester County.

In these districts there are 37 Sunday Schools, ten of these did not attend any of the Conferences and unless these ten are visited by a representative Sunday School speaker before May 1st, Chester County cannot gain the Gold Star rank. The county president can send a speaker to these Sunday Schools on any one or all three of the remaining Sundays, but he will have to have a request from the superintendents for such a mission. Of the 27 Sunday Schools that have been represented seven have failed to send a statistical report.

Statistical reports must be sent to Miss Mary Johnson, County Secretary, by May 1st, from each of the 30 Sunday Schools in the county before we can gain the coveted rank. If a superintendent is so cold, careless and indifferent to this important work in passing strange.

There are eleven Sunday Schools in the Chester District, and it is hoped that all will be represented at the Conference at Bethel Methodist Church next Sunday afternoon.

MONEY

Someone has said that "Money rules the world" and whilst there are oceans of truth in the axiom there is something else behind it that—caves, and shapes matters. It is knowing where, when and how to buy. Of what avail is mere money in the hands of the inexperienced; as well scatter it over the heaving bosom of the dark blue ocean. Remember! we are now in close touch with a group of the shrewdest buyers of general merchandise in the United States. One of the most interesting sights to the consumers of merchandise, nowadays is to watch the huge, automobile trucks unload their goods in front of our store. You are cordially invited to come and look them over.

STOMACH TROUBLE

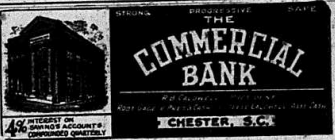

Mr. Marlon Holcomb, of Nancy, Ky., says: "For quite a long while I suffered with stomach trouble. I would have pains and a heavy feeling after my meals, a most disagreeable taste in my mouth. I tried anything with butter, oil or grease. I would spit it up. I began to have regular sick headache. I had used pills and tablets, but after a course of these, I would be constipated. I just seemed to fear my stomach all up. I found they were no good at all for my trouble. I heard

FORTUNE IN JEWELS MAY BE RECOVERED

Worldwide Search Ended by Arrest of Man in New York.

New York, April 9.—A world wide search for a fortune in jewels, the property of Mrs. J. B. Millhiser of Richmond, Va., ended here tonight with the arrest of James E. Foye, who had in his possession a check for $20,000 paid by a pawn broker for nine pearls believed by police to be part of a necklace at $275,000 lost by Mrs. Millhiser here last May.

When she missed the pearls Mrs. Millhiser notified police she had given two bags of jewels valued at $500,000 to Foye, then, an employee of the hotel to be placed in the hotel vault and found only one package when she asked for the jewelry.

The police said Foye was arrested in 1918 in Philadelphia on a swindling charge, and that he had served a part of a three and one-half year sentence in the penitentiary for stealing $2,000 in security from the General Electric company of Philadelphia. When he was searched, a memorandum book containing the names of several leading jewelry shops was found, the police said.

After leaving the Baltimore hotel Foye was employed by the British food commission. The police said at one time he was secretary to Charles E. Gates, prominent Wall street broker.

Foye refused to talk. He was charged with grand larceny.

While he was secretary to Mr. Gates, Foye caused the arrest of his own mother on a charge of bigamy. She was not convicted.

BOLL WORM PEST CAUSES CONFLICT

States Not Agreed as to Course.

Washington, April 7.—Sharply conflicting proposals for meeting the pink boll worm pest, which has attacked a foothold in certain Texas cotton growing areas, spreading from Mexico, and has also broken out in Louisiana, were presented today before the federal horticultural board by state officials and delegates from nearly all the cotton growing states. Representatives of the states outside Texas demanded that a federal quarantine be levied against the whole of Texas, unless its citizens agree to abolish cotton growing completely in infested areas for three years. The Texas, led by Governor Hobby, presented a counter plan to allow cotton planting this year under strict regional quarantine, with a promise to prohibit the cropping in 1921 if the boll worm appears.

The Louisiana delegation assured the board that by voluntary action, already undertaken, backed up with a special session of the legislature, the growers would abstain from the cropping the lands on which the worm has been discovered.

There was considerable heat in the arguments before the board, especially when Dr. C. L. Mariett, its chairman, said flatly that the Texas growers and state government had failed to back up the government in its fight on the pest, and were now advancing a proposition which might make eradication of the worm impossible. The Texas representative asserted that the board "could not get anywhere with the big stick," adding that a federal quarantine against cotton in its whole state could not be maintained.

A decision on the matter of a quarantine will be handed down shortly, it was announced after the hearings.

BOARD EXAMINERS FOR THE VETERINARIANS NAMED

Columbia, April 9.—Governor Cogges has named the new state board of Veterinary Examiners, as created by an act of the 1920 legislature. The board is composed of Benjamin McInnes, of Charleston, who will serve three years; W. A. Barnett, of Greenwood, to serve two years; and B. B. Blackstock, of Spartanburg, to serve one year. After three years all of the appointees will serve for three years. The board will examine and license to practice in the state veterinary surgeons and practitioners, in the same way as physicians are examined and licensed by the state board of medical examiners.

DRIVER NOT BLAMED

Jury's Verdict Says Horry Accident Was Unavoidable.

Gaffney, April 9.—Paul Leech, the young auto driver who ran over and killed little John Horn Monday afternoon, was exonerated by the coroner's jury, when the inquest was held here last night. The verdict was "That the child came to its death by being run over by Paul Leech, and that it was an unavoidable accident." As the coroner under the law can admit a party to bail under a verdict of this sort, the defendant was released from custody by the coroner on a bond of $500.

Mr. Jiles, Correll, of Columbia, who has been spending the week in this city, Mrs. Julia Correll, returned to Columbia this morning.

TRIES TO COLLECT BIG MONEY FROM U. S. GOVERNMENT

J. E. McDonald Would Have State and Citizens Reimbursed for Old Losses.

Columbia, April 10.—An effort that may result in the securing for South Carolina, and certain South Carolinians, the sum of approximately four million dollars is being made by J. E. McDonald, attorney, of Wilmington, acting as special agent for the state of South Carolina.

Under an act of the recent legislature for the recovery from the federal government of funds due the state from cotton taxes and destroyed during the Civil war as taxation.

Mr. McDonald has been in Columbia during the last few days and he stated that he has been contacted with by the governor and the attorney general, to handle the big claim which he has.

Mr. McDonald states that there are twenty-five or thirty states interested in getting similar funds from congress, and the agents of these states are in cooperation in an effort to have congress pass an act

Some Costly Mistakes Men are Making on Tires

Men who buy tires on a guess, or on claims, are making some costly mistakes.

Large tire users make tests and comparisons. And the results in late years are amazing.

Hudson Taxi Co. of Detroit, for instance, made a long test on Miller Cords. And the average was 15,000 miles.

Miller dealers get hundreds to compare Miller mileage with others. And they find an increased mileage of 50 per cent to 75 per cent.

Large truck users are comparing Miller Cords, passenger type, with all others. And they are coming in large numbers to Millers.

California stage lines are using Millers after million-mile tests with many rivals.

The Way to Know
At the Miller factory over 1,000 tires yearly are worn out in tests and comparisons.

They constantly prove that Miller is the best tire built.

In extreme rear-wheel tests they require an average of 15,000 miles on Cordis. They prove that the new Miller tread outwears the best of others by 25 per cent.

Such tires should be tested by every owner of a car. See what they give you. Compare with any tire on opposite rear wheels.

Miller experts, in late years, have doubled average tire mileage. Old-time figures do not apply today.

You will fix new requirements for your tires when you try a Miller. Do it now.

which will allow the recovery of this money. An act of 1918 cut off all possibility of recovering such funds.

A meeting is to be held in Washington at some future date, when the representatives of these states, including New York, Utah, California, South Carolina, and others, will cooperate in an effort to get an act through congress, providing for the refund to the states of the money in question.

Some of the claimants in this country are still living. Others have died and their share will likely be lost to the state. John I. Bly, an attorney of Columbia, is handling claims of this nature for a number of citizens, and there are probably others who will be able to substantiate their claim to part of the fund.

Mr. McDonald states that his idea is to ask congress to apportion the money, if it is provided for in an act, to the states, and let the states apportion it to the individual.

Efforts have been made in past years, states Mr. McDonald, to get such funds provided by congress, but the efforts have been by individuals. He states that by the concerted action of the agents of all the states interested, the money can be more likely secured.
