

4-13-1909

The Lantern, Chester S.C.- April 13, 1909

W F. Caldwell

J Frank Latimer

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/chesterlantern1909>

Part of the Journalism Studies Commons, and the Social History Commons

---

Recommended Citation

Caldwell, W F. and Latimer, J Frank, "The Lantern, Chester S.C.- April 13, 1909" (1909). The Chester Lantern 1909. 30.

<https://digitalcommons.winthrop.edu/chesterlantern1909/30>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the The Chester Lantern at Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Chester Lantern 1909 by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Winthrop University. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@mailbox.winthrop.edu.

Art Squares, Mattings and Linoleums

We are showing a beautiful line of Art Squares, Mattings and Linoleums, in all the New Patterns for Spring.

Seamless Wilton Rugs, size 9 x 12, only. 27.50
Axminster Velvet Rugs, size 9x12, only. 21.50
Seamless Nepperham Brussels Rug, 9x12, only 15.00
Velvet Rugs, size 36x72, only. 3.50.
Ask to see the Hali Fiber Matting, an ideal floor covering, only 35c.

Japanese and China Mattings, at 25c per yard
Matting Rugs, size 36x72 only. 65c
Beautiful Matting Art Squares, size 9x12, only $8.50 to $12.50
Two-yard wide Linoleum at $1.00 per yard
36 inch Floor Art Cloth at 25c a yard

Now is the time to buy your floor covering for Spring.

AT THE BIG STORE S. M. Jones & Company

THE LANTERN

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.
$1.50 per year, cash.

LOCAL NEWS

Cotting today $80.

Mr. Joe James, of Greenville, spent Sabbath with Mr. S. C. Carter.

Miss Marie Cross went to Columbia Friday morning on a few days' visit.

Mrs. Mary Ingraham left Saturday for Fort Mill to spend several days with her brother.

Solicitor J. K. Henry went to Yorkville yesterday morning to be present at the opening of court.

Miss Rhett Mobley went to Columbia Thursday to spend several days with Mrs. I. A. Goodwin.

TO OUR friends and customers. Just received carload of N. C. Soda. Come and see us before buying. S. M. Jones & Co.

Capt. E. E. Moore returned Friday evening from a few days' stay at his farm near Morganton, N. C.

Little Miss Doris Brawley, of Columbia, came up Saturday morning on a visit to her grandmother, Mrs. Jane Brawley.

Miss Willie Castles, of Blackstock, came up Saturday afternoon and spent until yesterday morning with Mrs. B. E. Wright.

Miss Margaret White went to Rock Hill Saturday morning to spend the day with a cousin at Windsor college.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Darby went to Rock Hill Saturday to spend Sabbath with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. McFadden.

Miss Beatie Bradley went to Columbia Saturday on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bradley, and returned yesterday morning.

Mrs. C. B. Whitte, of Columbia, came up Saturday morning to spend a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Casteel, near Baton Rouge.

Mrs. Mary Dixon, of Blackstock, returned N. Y. 1, returned Thursday on a few weeks' visit with her daughter, Mrs. L. A. Goodwin, in Columbia.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. F. Cloud went to Lancaster Saturday to visit the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bell, and returned yesterday morning.

FOR SALE—A few hundred bushels of King's Early Improved Cottonseed Oil at 50c per bushel. These seeds are pure as the planting seed were bought direct from King. S. M. Jones & Co. 4-9-31.

Mrs. W. A. Bowles and children, Masters Charles and Little Miss Maude, went to Gastonia Saturday to spend a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Turner Williams.

Miss Kate Glenn came home from Laurens Thursday to spend the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Glenn, and returned yesterday.

Mrs. Kate Castles Province left Saturday morning for her home at Rutherford College, N. C., after a few days' visit with Mrs. T. N. Ramsey, at N. W. Harding's farm. Mr. Lay and son returned Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Hardin and baby stayed over until yesterday morning.

On account of services at the Presbyterian church the presentation of "Buster Brown" will not begin to night until 9 o'clock. The doors open at 7.45.

Mr. W. B. Vaughn, a salesman for Wylie and Co's store, returned Friday afternoon from Simpson where he had been two weeks at the home of his parents recovering from an attack of malaria.

The Seaboard ferry was wrecked near Deaconsburg early Friday morning. Several were injured but no one was killed. The switch had been broken and the engine and cars were thrown against some box cars on the side track, completely demolishing the engine. The perpetrators of the dastardly deed have not been caught.

Fire Department Was Kept Busy.

Last Saturday evening an alarm was turned in from Columbia street and the fire department responded promptly. But it was only a chimney on fire in a negro house and before the wagon reached the spot it had been extinguished.

On towards midnight of Saturday night another alarm was turned in from the fire department. The fire occurred in the negro quarter "Brooklyn" and fire engines were burned, two owned by Levi Wilson, two owned by Walter Smith, and the other owned and occupied by David Crosby, while Henry Caldwell's residence was badly damaged. The fire began in the house of John Jackson and spread very rapidly. One of the firemen who were called by the alarm was severely burned and it is not thought that it will get much worse. Wilson and Smith were protected by insurance but the inmates of the burned houses saved practically none of their furnishings.

A grip containing $8,000 was snatched from a seat on the train near Denmark by a robber who escaped with the booty. The money belonged to N. G. Evans, of Edgemoor.

Miss Bertha Barrett left yesterday for her home at Santee after a few days' visit with her cousin, Mrs. Butler Bailey.

Mrs. W. S. Taylor, A. L. Gaston, J. S. Booth and J. T. Anderson left yesterday morning for Spartanburg to attend the grand council of Red Men.

Miss Maggie Edwards went to Columbia Saturday afternoon and spent until yesterday morning with her sister, Miss Mary Edwards.

Miss Mary Gibson has returned from a few days' visit to her sister, Mrs. Jane Lewis Wallace, in Rock Hill.

Miss Maggie Sheriff went to Lewis Turnout Saturday to visit Mr. L. E. Edmon.

Miss Rachel Counts, of Union, came over Saturday to visit Miss Kate Pitts and returned today.

Miss Vivian Gregory went to Sandy River Saturday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Gregory, and returned yesterday afternoon.

Miss Mary Slagle went to Fort Mill Saturday to spend Easter with relatives and returned yesterday morning.

Mr. P. G. McCormick and Master Billy, went to Fort Mill Saturday to spend Easter with friends.

Mrs. E. R. Pauling and son, of Orangeburg, who have been visiting Mr. W. A. Correll, left yesterday morning for their home.

Miss Looie Oehler came home from Linwood College Friday afternoon to spend a few days with her mother, Mrs. B. Oehler.

Miss Neta Spratt came home from Rock Hill Friday evening on a few days' visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Spratt.

Mr. John Marion, of the University of South Carolina, came home Saturday afternoon on a few days' visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Marion.

Misses Somerville Booth, Winnie Hafoar and Mary Hamilton came home from Windsor college Saturday evening on a few days' visit to home folks.

Miss Julia Titman, who is teaching at Spencer, N. C., and Miss Grace, a student at Windsor college, spent the Easter holidays with their mother, Mrs. M. A. Titman, of Lowville.

Miss Jennie Oates, who has a position in Charleston, came home Saturday afternoon to spend Easter with her mother, Mrs. J. E. Oates, and returned yesterday morning.

Mr. Shuford, Ballman, of Florida, who has been sick at the home of his sister, Mrs. Lizzie Eubank, left yesterday morning for Charlotte to undergo an operation at one of the hospitals. He was accompanied by his niece, Mrs. Albert Paster, of Greenville.

(Rev. J. W. Douglas, of Baltimore, left yesterday evening for his home after spending a day and night with his sister, Mrs. W. F. Marion, on his return from a visit to his home, Capt. J. S. Douglas, in Columbia.

Co. G of the Regiment, of the South Carolina National Guard will be inspected at their armory at Cornwell on April 17th at 7:30 a. m. Capt. J. S. McGowan has sent out notices to the members to report at that date and time. The company will have no doubt, as they always do, pass a creditable inspection.

Opera House

"Buster" Tonight.

Mark Twain once said "There is nothing in the world a boy enjoys more than to be a boy." It is the exact application of the above title saying that enables one to solve the question as to the limitless popularity of R. P. Caldwell's famous boy character "Buster Brown." It is because Buster is the living breathing prototype of many another boy. Grandfather recognizes Buster's traits of fun and mischief at once and is carried back to the days of some of his own pranks. The youngsters admire Buster because he is a "manly little chap" worthy of youthful admiration and emulation. It is because the character, Buster Brown, is a real boy that we love him, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

Opera House

"Buster" Tonight.

Mark Twain once said "There is nothing in the world a boy enjoys more than to be a boy." It is the exact application of the above title saying that enables one to solve the question as to the limitless popularity of R. P. Caldwell's famous boy character "Buster Brown." It is because Buster is the living breathing prototype of many another boy. Grandfather recognizes Buster's traits of fun and mischief at once and is carried back to the days of some of his own pranks. The youngsters admire Buster because he is a "manly little chap" worthy of youthful admiration and emulation. It is because the character, Buster Brown, is a real boy that we love him, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one is not dead, and it is for the reason that they who exploit him in the play form have surrounded him with a clever people supplied with gorgeous costumes, catchy songs and music and pretty girls, that the public has accorded such hearty patronage to the stage. Seats at City Hall, REMEMBER LOOKS OFF AT 7. PERFORM-ANCE AT 8 P. M.

On the morning of February the 20th, 1909 many hearts in Chester were saddened by the message, "Mr. Blake is dead." No one

