farcical style.

The peafowl is a bird of many songs, often heard in the wild and sometimes in captivity. Its song is characterized by a trill, and it is often associated with the lute and the flute. The bird's plumage is colorful and eye-catching, with feathers that are often displayed in a fan-like manner.

is the time? We believe prohibition will yet win, because it is on the side of right. Whether or not that time is yet in the near future, the people of the State have the power to bring it about. When the time comes for the injuring of the few to stop, and for the benefit of the many to begin, there should be no prejudice against the act. If the act is right, the reasons against it should not be very great.

Now, he will be denounced as a hastier than to purchase, but that time is not now. We concur with the Messengers of the State and the public.

NO WONDER

WALKER'S PLACE IS SO MUCH ADMIRED!

EVERYTHING is so attractive and his stock is complete.

Every householder knows that when a nice dinner is wanted it cannot be got until you go to Walker's. As he keeps everything that is needed, there is nothing exceptional. Just inform us what you want in the order we will try to procuring it for you.

Blow your horn and say, "My horn is blowing to-day and I want my dinner."

No matter how large the request, Walker's is the place.

JOS. A. WALKER

WEEDER AND CULTIVATOR,

PRICE, $1.00.

WORKS 7-1/2 FEET, WEIGHT, 80 POUNDS.

The Weeder is imperative for all crops, nothing growing on so far in any section of the country, neither can it be used with great profit. Used at the right time, and with frequency, it is the hardest and most successful of all forms of cultivation, viz: hoeing.
