Rock Hill, Jan. 8--Three Georgia girls, two of Augusta and one of Eatonton, all seniors at Winthrop college, have been selected for Who's Who among students in American universities and colleges for 1946-47, Winthrop officials announced yesterday.

Mary Lay Ewing and Billye Reddic, both of Augusta, and Bette Stribling of Eatonton, were named as outstanding students.

Miss Ewing, daughter of W. L. Ewing of 933 Neigs street, Augusta, is a journalism major and has been prominent in school newspaper work since her freshman year. First semester of this year she has been editor of The Johnsonian, Winthrop student weekly. She will be graduated from the college this month.

Miss Reddic, also of Augusta, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Reddic, Sr., of Route 4. For two years she held offices in her class, and has been a member of the Senate, student lawmaking body. She is a commerce major.

Miss Stribling, a physical education major, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Stribling, Jr., of Eatonton. Very active in athletics, she has held offices in the Winthrop athletic association for three years, this year serving as president. Recently she was elected chairman of the newly-organized South Carolina Athletic Association of College Women. She is also a member of Senior Order, highest honorary organization on the campus.
